

*In this season of Advent
as we wait for the Lord to come we pray*

for a reign of justice and wholeness;

for an end to unnecessary divisions and senseless violence.

we pray that the transformative power of Christ will enable us to find ways to work with Palestinians and Israelis, a way which respects both people's histories and their mutual need for justice and security; and we pray that Palestinians and Israelis will find a new way of living with one another;

a way which will lead to peace and prosperity for all God's children in the Holy Land.
