Her Story

Bless the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name. Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits
Psalm 103:1-2

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Frost was born on October 30, 1936 to the late Foster Jeter, Sr. and Mamie Palmer Jeter in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. She was called home to be with the Lord on Saturday morning, March 21, 2020 at her residence. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Roscoe Frost; her sisters: Margaret J. Doby, Betty J. Cole, Eloise J. Benson and Clara J. Brooks; and her brothers: Coleman, Henry and Foster Jeter, Jr.

A life-long resident of Forsyth County, she attended the local public schools. For 34 years she was a dedicated member of Rainbow Tabernacle of Faith. An ordained evangelist and National Mother of her church, she was well loved by her church family and many who came in contact with her. In addition to the work she did for her church, she also enjoyed cooking, reading and decorating.

Dearly respected by her family, the life she lived spoke for her. She will be greatly missed.

She is survived by her children: Deborah Wilson, Sheral Love, La-Trevia Wilson, Sharon Wilson, David Wilson, Jr. and Norman Wilson; a host of grandchildren and great grandchildren; her remaining sibling, Dorothy Murphy; special niece, Tonja Brooks; nieces, nephews; other relatives; nurse, Lisa Kelly; and friends. She was devoted to her family and loved them all. Our knowledge of her faith in God and her love for mankind, will provide comfort for us in days ahead.

Proverbs 31:10-31

¹⁰ Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies.

¹¹ The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil.

¹² She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life.

¹³ She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands.

¹⁴ She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar.

¹⁵ She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens.

¹⁶ She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.

¹⁷ She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms.

¹⁸ She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night.

¹⁹ She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff.

²⁰ She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.

²¹ She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet.

²² She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple.

²³ Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land.

²⁴ She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant.

²⁵ Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come.

²⁶ She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness.

²⁷ She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness.

²⁸ Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.

²⁹ Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all.

³⁰ Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised.

³¹ Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.
