I Hope You Dance

~ Lee Ann Womack

*I hope you never lose your sense of wonder
You get your fill to eat but always keep that hunger
May you never take one single breath for granted
God forbid love ever leave you empty handed*

*I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean
Whenever one door closes I hope one more opens
Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance*

*I hope you dance
I hope you dance*

The Obituary

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

John 3:16

Ms. JoAnn Albright Carpenter, affectionately known as “Jo Baby” was born on October 30, 1942 in Winston-Salem, NC to the late Alonzo Albright and Annie Bowman Albright. She was the youngest and the last surviving of their four children. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her siblings: Etheridge Albright, Shirley Albright and Alene Albright Boyd.

Jo Ann lived in Winston-Salem all her life and attended the local schools. She worked in Housekeeping at Wake Forest University until her health declined. Jo Ann received her early Christian foundation at Bethlehem Baptist Church under the pastorate of the late Reverend E.L. Clark. Those who knew our mother, knew that she loved painting, drawing and writing poems. She knew how to get a party started and was known for her dancing. We find comfort in knowing that she is now probably dancing up a storm!

She leaves to cherish their memories: her son, Bobby Albright; her daughter, Ulanda (Nathan) Brooks, Sr.; three grandchildren, Nate (Tafari) Brooks, Jr., Brigett Brooks and Bobby Albright-McQueen; eight great grandchildren, Kemia Worthy, Nabria Worthy, Nadiya Brooks, Morgan Brooks, Caleb Brockington, Teyon Albright-Bryant, Patience Albright-Bryant and Jasson Dunlap; a bonus great granddaughter, Kayla Gaines; a host of nieces, nephews and a special dear childhood friend, Brenda Harris.
