

After Glow

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an after glow
of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun
of happy memories
that I leave when life is done.

Acknowledgement

With great appreciation we thank everyone for the many acts of kindness since the homegoing of our loved one.
Your thoughtfulness is a source of comfort to us now and will be in the days ahead.

The Family

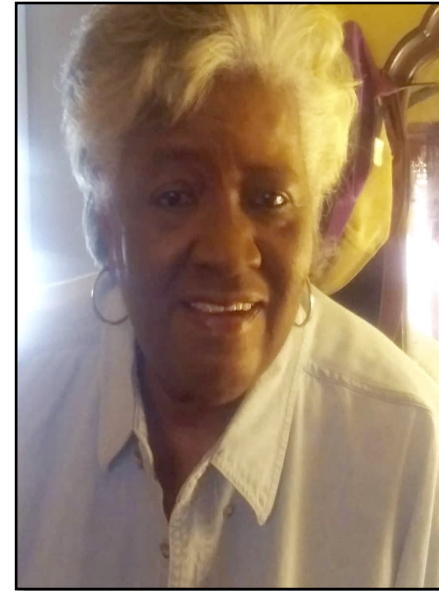

727 North Patterson Avenue
Winston-Salem, North Carolina 27101
336.722.8117
www.clarksbrownandsons.com

Service of Love and Remembrance

Sunrise
August 2, 1943

Sunset
June 28, 2020

Mrs. Marian W. Jones

Thursday, July 2, 2020

11:00 A.M.

Clark S. Brown and Sons Funeral Home Chapel

727 N. Patterson Avenue

Winston-Salem, North Carolina

Rev. Ronald E. Speas, Officiant and Eulogist

Obituary

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3:16

Mrs. Marian W. Jones was born in Winston-Salem, on August 2, 1943 to the late Preston Webb, Sr. and Alberta Hughes Webb. She attended the local schools, graduated from Anderson Senior High School and furthered her education at Winston-Salem State University.

Multitalented, she worked in various capacities during her life. A former production line worker at Gravely Tractor Company, she also worked in revenue accounting at US Airways. Cooking was among her passions. She most recently prepared many nutritious meals as the Head Cook at Quality Education Academy.

She was a faithful member of New Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church and a fun-loving member of the Red Hat Society. An avid gardener, many people benefited from her green thumb.

On Sunday, June 28, 2020, after a life of sowing "good seeds", she passed away at Kate B. Reynolds Hospice Home.

In addition to many other ancestors and her parents, she was preceded in death by: sisters, Helen Webb Nichols and Hattie Webb McLaurin; brother-in-law, Lawson B. Nichols; sister-in-law, Gladys Webb; and son-in-law, Marvin Lindsay.

She is survived by: her husband, Deacon Phamon Jones; daughters, Katrena Jones, Kawana Jones Lindsay and Kia Jones Smalls; nine grandchildren, Keyonna R. Jones Escobar, Mack R. King, III, Katurah S. King, Maya Lindsay, Marcus Lindsay, Malik Lindsay, Isaiah C. Smalls, Alex J. Smalls and Christian D. Smalls; two great grandchildren, Mai S. King and Nafiys S. King; brothers, Preston Webb, Jr. and Alponso (Elizabeth) Webb; special niece, Betty J. Fowler; a host of other nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Phamon

Katrena

Kawana

Kia

Another leaf has fallen from our family tree,
but because of her love,
we will remain strong as a family.

The Broken Chain

We knew that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly
In death we'll do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you
That night God called you home.
You left us precious memories
Your love is still our guide
And though we cannot see you
You are always by our side.
Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again.

~Author Unknown

Order of Service

Processional

Holy Scripture Readings

Rev. Dr. Earnest Pickens, Senior Pastor

Switzer Mt. Zion Baptist Church

Moore, South Carolina

Prayer of Comfort

Rev. Dr. Earnest Pickens

Song

Church Resolution

New Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church

Community Resolution

Mrs. Mable Allen

Red Hat Society

Ms. Deborah Oakes

Family

Daughters

Song

Eulogy

Rev. Ronald E. Speas, Pastor

New Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church

Recessional

Precious Memories

Forever in Our Hearts

