Obituary

Alfred Dixon McCoy, the son of Birden Dixon McCoy and Lovie Dalton McCoy, was born on June 1, 1937 in Winston-Salem, NC.

After the completion of high school, “Dixon” served in the U.S. Air Force for twenty years. His tour of duties included travels overseas and within the United States. Years later he had four more children: Christina Poole, Derrick and Kerry Tucker, and Monique Ingram.

Most of his retirement days were spent helping his sisters and other relatives with tasks at their homes and throughout the community. He frequently attended Piedmont Triad Church and enjoyed playing cards and Bingo, bowling, traveling and other “Game Night Events”.

On October 14, 2020, he completed his final earthly assignment. Those who preceded him in death include his parents, sister, Alinda Foote Alston and son, Kerry Tucker.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles
when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly
down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry
before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave
when life is done.
