

FLOWER BEARERS

Family and Friends

God looked around his garden

And He found an empty place.
He then looked down upon this earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He saw that the road was getting rough.
And the hills are hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered " Please be thine ".
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone
For part of us went with you
That day that God called you home.

Acknowledgment

Thank you for your kindness, thank you that you cared,
Thank you for the things you did and the friendship that you shared.
Words can never tell you, words can never say,
How very much you changed our lives, how much you did each day.

OBITUARY

Mr. William Roosevelt Webster, Sr. was born in Forsyth County to the late Mollie “Bernice” Fulp on June 22, 1957. He was educated in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools and graduated from East Forsyth High School in 1976. He was also a 2008 graduate of Triad Community Kitchen and a member of the American Culinary Federation of North Carolina.

He worked for several years at Tension Envelopes before he found that his true passion was food preparation. His employment at Providence Restaurant and Catering and requests for his demos at Triad Community Kitchen allowed him to show his extensive talent with food preparation and presentation.

William was an avid fan of the Carolina Panthers Football Team and he enjoyed cooking, hunting and fishing. He loved Food, Family, Friends, Fun and Football!

Mr. William Roosevelt Webster, Sr. passed away on Wednesday, June 21, 2016 at Forsyth Medical Center in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. In addition to his mother, Mollie (Leon) Fulp, he was preceded in death by two brothers, Clyde A. Webster and Leon Fulp, Jr.; and his grandparents, Ross Webster and Katie Gilliam Webster.

Those family members who survive and who will forever cherish loving memories of him include his devoted wife, Julianna “Julie” Webster; his children, Kimberly Payne, Shannon Webster and William Webster, Jr.; four stepchildren, Christopher (Danita) Vargas, Anthony Vargas, Aaron Vargas and John Vargas; two sisters, Charlotte Martin and Donna Fulp; two aunts, De-meatrice (Walter) Lash and Clara Mae Webster; 22 grandchildren; four great grandchildren; several, nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members and many friends. And his best friend, his pooch “Chef.”
