SAFELY HOME

I am home in Heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty in this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over, every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever, safely home in Heaven at last.
Did you wonder I so calmly trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! But Jesus' love illuminated every dark and fearful glade.
And He came Himself to meet me In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on, could I have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve so sorely; for I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows, pray to trust our Father's will
There is work still waiting for you, so you must not idle stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth- you shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed, He will gently call you home;
Oh, the rapture of the meeting, oh, the joy to see you come!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

*We are sincerely grateful to each of you for your kind words, thoughtful deeds and every prayer prayed on our behalf during this painful period of love and loss of our beloved, "Cricket."
And when the winter of our sorrow is gone, and the flowers of loving memories spring up - We will remember you!*

OBITUARY

Ms. Mona Lilnette Braddy, affectionately called “Cricket,” was born to Annette Sides Braddy and the late Thomas Braddy in Forsyth County North Carolina on February 9, 1964. She attended the public schools of Winston-Salem/Forsyth County and graduated from North Forsyth High School in 1984.

Mona Lilnette Braddy passed away at Forsyth Medical Center in Winston-Salem, North Carolina on Saturday, October 1, 2016, finally getting her wish to be reunited with her earthly father, who preceded her in death. She is now safely home with her Father in Heaven.

Those family members who survive to cherish loving memories as they mourn the loss of “Cricket,” include her mother, Annette S. Braddy; her sisters, Courtney B. (David) Wharton and Valise T. Sides; her brothers, Adrian L. (Robin) Sides and Thomas. M. Braddy, Jr.; her grandmother, Ethel W. Braddy; an aunt, Dilcy O. Braddy; an uncle, Charles E. Braddy; her fiancé, Herb Ford; many nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members and several friends who loved her so much.

“Teach us Lord, help us to believe in what all I could be and all that I am; Show me the stairway I have to climb Lord; teach me to take one day at a time, so I may realize just as “you are, so am I.”
