Our Sincere Gratitude

*Thank you for your kindness,
thank you that you cared,*

Thank you for the things you did and the friendship that you shared.

*Words can never tell you, words can never say,
How very much you changed our lives,
how much you did each day.*

OBITUARY

Fronnie Mae Thomas Stewart, the daughter of the late Adam Thomas and Minnie Ruth Medley Thomas, entered this life on September 18, 1933 in Anson County, North Carolina.

She attended the local schools and was a graduate of West Ansonville High School. At an early age, Fronnie confessed Christ and joined Popular Springs Baptist Church in Burnsville, North Carolina.

After moving to Winston-Salem, North Carolina, she joined Emmanuel Baptist Church on her Christian experience and she was a faithful member until her health declined. She served on many auxiliaries, including the Ora Hambright Missionary Circle, D. Everett Bible Club, Senior Choir and Sunday School. She was a former member of The William C. Sims Senior Citizens Club. Fronnie retired after thirty-six years as a Nurse Assistant for North Carolina Baptist Hospital.

She was married to the late William "Brown" Stewart for fifty years, prior to his death in 2008. To this union three sons were born. Her kindness, unselfishness, pleasant smile and gentle manner characterized her image in the hearts and minds of her sons.

Mrs. Fronnie Mae Thomas Stewart peacefully passed away at Forsyth Medical Center in Winston-Salem on Friday, October 28, 2016, following a period of illness. In addition to her parents and her husband, she was preceded in death by two sons, Gregory and Kenneth Leonard; a sister, Emma Ruth Harris; three brothers, Morris, Charlie and Richard Thomas; and a step-son, William Wayne Stewart.

Those left with happy memories and expectations of meeting again include her son, Richard (Many) Stewart; grandsons, Scott, Brandon (LaToya) and Christopher Stewart, Kenneth "KJ" (Sylvia) Stewart of Tampa, FL and William (Christina) Stewart; granddaughters, Angela (Sly) Ambrose of Charlotte, NC, Tonya McCray and Jasmine (Howard) Gatson of El Paso, TX; nieces, Sylvia Thomas Hancock of Charlotte, NC, Cheryl (Jesse) Burns of Apex, NC and D'Gina (Jesse) Powell of Cary, NC; nephews, Michael Anthony Thomas and Lewis Harris of Odessa, TX; eight great grandchildren; two great, great grandchildren; a brother-in-law, Diggs Harris; and a host of cousins and other relatives and special friends and care-giver Mary Pauling and family, Louester Jackson and Hazel Watson.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles
when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways.

Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve
to dry before the sun;

Of happy memories that I leave
when life is done.

Mother's Hands

Hands that rocked the cradle from the moment of my birth, their tender touch remembered by those still here on earth.

*Soft as silk those hands that taught me how to pray.
Banishing childhood fears; they soothed each one away.*

*When I grew much older and troubles came my way,
These hands caressing mine did more than words could say.*

*Mother's hands were gentle, they're missed so very much,
I'd give the world to feel once more their warm and tender touch.*

*Those hands were full of comfort; now they lie at rest.
But memories hold them close to the ones they served the best.*
