My Dad My Angel
By: Jamie Cirello

*Your battle is now over, no more tears flowing down your cheek, no more pain, no more suffering, now you are no longer weak.
I still do not understand why this had to happen to you, but I am proud to say you are my dad, the greatest man I ever knew.*

*Although you will not be here to walk me down the aisle when that day comes I know you will be by my side with a smile
You were always there for me and never once made me cry, until the day you closed your eyes and had to say goodbye.*

*Now you are my Angel, so spread your wings out wide,
please wrap them around me whenever you see me cry.
Our time together was memorable and God took you way too fast, but the most precious thing to me was you being there for my first breath,
and me being there for your last.*

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We are grateful for every expression of kindness and concern.
Our spirits have been lifted by your words of comfort.
Our needs have been attended by your acts of kindness.
And our hearts have been warmed by your expressions of love.

It is our sincere prayer that God will richly bless and keep you in His care.

OBITUARY

“My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion forever.” Psalm 73:26

James Gregory Bradshaw, affectionately called “Goose,” was born in Winston-Salem, North Carolina to the late James Alfred Bradshaw and Willie Lee Simmons Bradshaw, on September 9, 1949.

Goose attended Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools and was a member of the 1968 graduating class of Atkins High School. His early Christian education began at Grace Presbyterian Church and at the time of his death, he was a faithful member of Love and Faith Christian Fellowship where he faithfully served in the media ministry.

Mr. Bradshaw was discharged from the United States Army after giving honorable service for his country during the Vietnam era. He earned an Associate Degree in Computer Technology from ITT Grinnell and was formerly employed at Xerox Corporation. He retired from Haywood Industries, Inc., (Clemmons Division).

Goose, a self appointed independent contractor, performed minor home renovations and was often found operating as a backyard mechanic. He loved his family and his church. He was a people person who possessed a great sense of humor.

James Gregory Bradshaw went home to be with the Lord from Forsyth Medical Center in Winston-Salem on Wednesday, February 22, 2017, following a brief period of illness. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by an aunt, Naomi Simmons.

Those family members who survive and who will forever cherish loving memories of “Goose” include his wife, Cynthia Shore Bradshaw; his daughter, Shjamill Kala Bradshaw; step-daughter, LaSha' (Michael) Robinson; his siblings, Carolyn (Morris) Morgan and Cecil (Jusolyn) Bradshaw; two nieces, Kristin Morgan and Ciceli Bradshaw; two nephews, Eric Morgan and Bryant Simmons; an aunt, Lillie Cuthrell; a sister-in-law, Velma S. McMillian; two brothers-in-law, Samuel E. and Robert D. Shore; several extended family members and friends; and his pooches, Peaches and Herb.
