FEEL NO GUILT IN LAUGHTER

*Feel no guilt in laughter; she'd know how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile that she is not here to share.*

*You cannot grieve forever; she would not want you to.
She'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.*

*So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
the days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.*

*Let memories surround you, a word someone may say will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, or a day, that brings her back as clearly as though she were still here,
and fills you with the feeling that she is always near.*

For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart and she will live forever... locked safe within your heart.

From the Heart

Dear Friends, we thank you for your words of comfort, your acts of kindness and all of your expressions of friendship during these difficult days of love and loss. And when the winter of our sorrow is gone and the flowers of loving memories spring up, we will remember you.

We are grateful for the passionate and professional care rendered by:

OBITUARY

*“When I’ve gone the last mile of the way, I shall rest at the close of day
I know there is joy that awaits me, when I’ve gone the last mile of the way.”*

Rosa Mae Lincoln Thompson was the first of six girls born to the late James Ervin Lincoln and Mozell Shannon Lincoln. She was born on November 13, 1932 in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Rosa Mae attended the public schools of Winston-Salem/Forsyth County and graduated from Atkins High School in 1951. She began her early Christian education as a member of Friendship Baptist Church.

After graduating from high school, Rosa Mae worked at North Carolina Baptist Hospital for a brief period before moving to New York City where she met and married the late Allen Thompson and they made their home there for many years. The couple relocated to Winston-Salem and they proudly welcomed the birth of a baby boy, Dwight Anthony.

Mrs. Thompson was a homemaker who was affectionately referred to as “WXII” by the family. She seemed to be a walking encyclopedia. She was the family historian. The unexpected loss of her sight made her keenly aware of the happenings in the community around her and she kept everyone else informed of the latest news. Rosa Mae enjoyed listening to gospel music and her favorite television programs. She insisted on a party for her birthday and she enjoyed time spent with her family, especially her grandchildren.

Mrs. Rosa Mae Lincoln Thompson answered the call to “come home” from Forsyth Medical Center in Winston-Salem, North Carolina on Monday, March 6, 2017, following a period of illness. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by two sisters, Maggie Bea Lincoln and Bettye Jean Lincoln Williams.

Those family members who survive and who will forever cherish loving memories of her include her son, Dwight Anthony (Tamara) Thompson; her grandchildren, Victoria Elise and Dwight Anthony, Jr.; sisters, Shirley (Aaron) Hall, Mattie McMillan and Earline Harry; a sister/niece, Gloria (Arthur, Sr.) Hunder; several nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members and many friends.

The family acknowledges cousin Bertha Parks for assuring that Rosa Mae’s nails and hair were always beautiful. We also have appreciation for Dr. Champ Jones and Maplewood Family Practice and The Brian Center for the professional and compassionate care that they provided.
