

Eulogy for a Veteran

Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the Gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the mornings hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
of quiet birds in circled flight,
I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there, I did not die.

THANK YOU

For all the kindness you have shown ...
We thank you very much.
For sympathy in sorrowing days,
For friendship's healing touch.

OBITUARY

Mr. Donald James Huggins was born to the late Margaret Elizabeth Brown and the late William Huggins in Baltimore City, Maryland on January 23, 1943.

He gave service for his country during the Vietnam Era and following his honorable military service he was discharged from the United States Army.

Mr. Huggins had a varied employment history that included his most recent position with Salem Health Services Laundry in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Mr. Donald James Huggins peacefully passed away at The Brian Center Health and Rehab in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, on March 27, 2017.

Those family members who survive and who will cherish fond memories of him include his daughter, Telissa Jackson; eight grandchildren; two great grandchildren; two brothers, Reverend Henry (Angela) Green and Joseph Keels; a sister, Bernice Gordon of Charleston, South Carolina; his niece, Tequila Green; and several extended family members.

Donald,
We all love and miss you but we know that you are in a better place where all your suffering is over.
We love you,
Your Family
