FEEL NO GUILT IN LAUGHTER

*Feel no guilt in laughter; she'd know how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile that she is not here to share.*

*You cannot grieve forever; she would not want you to.
She'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.*

*So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
the days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.*

*Let memories surround you, a word someone may say will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, or a day, that brings her back as clearly as though she were still here,
and fills you with the feeling that she is always near.*

For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart and she will live forever... locked safe within your heart.

OBITUARY

Kara Garnell Waiters was born February 6, 1942 to the late Walker L. and Carrie Ella Gillespie.

She was surrounded in love by five sisters, Mary Frances Goldsmith (deceased), Delores Boyce, Brenda Caldwell, Kimberly G. Kimbrough and Michelle Boller and three brothers, Jerry Gillespie, Charles Gillespie, Sr., and James R. Gillespie (deceased). She attended Iredell County Public Schools.

Ms. Waiters proudly thanked and served Our Heavenly Father until September 2, 2016.

She was the loving mother of her son, Walter L. Gillespie and stepdaughter, Raycole Waiters-Watlington. She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Thurman Waiters.

Ms. Waiters resided in Winston-Salem, North Carolina and retired from Sears and Roebuck Company as a Display Manager. Upon retirement, she relocated to Virginia Beach, Virginia to enjoy the company of her four grandsons, Cedric, Tyson, Devan and Mason.

She leaves a host of brothers and sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, friends and fellow church members to cherish her memory.
