Listen With Your Heart

*Memories are a treasure time cannot take away...
So may you be surrounded by happy ones today...*

May all the love and tenderness of golden years well spent come back today to fill your heart with beauty and contentment...

*And may you walk down Memory Lane and meet the one you love
For while you may not see them, they're watching from above...*

*And if you trust your dreaming your faith will make it true...
And listen with your heart they'll come and talk with you...*

*So for goodness sake be happy and show them that their love has proven strong and big enough to reach down from above...
And you will never walk alone when Memory's Door swings wide...
For you'll find that your beloved is always by your side.*

OUR SINCERE GRATITUDE

Your kind words, thoughtful deeds and every prayer are but a few of the many expressions of sympathy for which we are grateful.

"And when the winter of our sorrow is gone,
and the flowers of loving memories spring up ...
We will remember you!"

OBITUARY

*“Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same;
But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.”*

Annie Vivian Jordan was born to the late Curtis McRae and Oglather Stella McEachin on October 4, 1936 in Scotland County, North Carolina. She was educated in the public schools of Scotland County.

She soon met and married her childhood sweetheart and the love of her life, John Henry Jordan, Jr. And they provided a home that was filled with love, comfort and sustenance for their seven children. He was bread winner, but she was “the hard working homemaker, mother, teacher, nurse and disciplinarian.” And she was the “best cook on earth.” She was John Henry’s beloved and faithful partner for sixty-three years prior to his death on January 11, 2015.

Mrs. Annie Vivian Jordan was called from ‘labor to reward’ at her home in Winston-Salem, North Carolina on Wednesday, September 21, 2016. In addition to her parents and her husband, she was preceded in death by her granddaughter, Akia Faith Jordan.

Those family members who survive and who will forever cherish loving memories of her include her children, John Henry (Patricia) Jordan, III, Betty Jean Jordan, Betty Ann (Billie) Summers, Brenda Jordan, Patricia Jordan, Linda Mitchell and Angela Jordan; fifteen grandchildren; fourteen great grandchildren; three brothers-in-law, Nathaniel (Alice) Jordan, Sr., Charlie Jordan and Charles Jordan; four sisters-in-law, Fannie Times, Elizabeth Davis of Mount Vernon, NY, Shirley Brown of Atlanta, GA and Lucille Monroe; several extended family members and many friends.
