

To Our Mother With Love

*A light from our household is gone
A voice we love is still
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.*

OBITUARY

Ms. Cassandra Nicole McDougal, also known as “Sandy,” was born in Winston-Salem, North Carolina to the late Willie James McDougal and Gwendolyn Johnson McDougal Williams on December 25, 1969.

She attended the Guilford County Schools and was a graduate of Grimsley Senior High School in Greensboro, North Carolina.

Ms. McDougal furthered her education at Sanford Technical College in Clinton, North Carolina where she graduated and received her certification in cosmetology. She was a practicing cosmetologist for many years in both Greensboro and Winston-Salem.

Cassandra Nicole McDougal passed away at Kate B. Reynolds Hospice Home in Winston-Salem on Monday, October 30, 2017, following a period of illness. In addition to her father, she was preceded in death by a sister, Ellen Janene McDougal; and her paternal and maternal grandparents..

Those family members who remain not to mourn but to cherish loving memories of “Sandy” include her mother, Gwendolyn (Charmer) Williams of the home; two sons, Richard Allen Smith and Aaron X. Cullins and a daughter, Alexi Cullins, all of the city; two grandchildren, Aubrey Smith and Ayden Smith; two sisters, Angela McDougal of Greensboro and Shelly McDougal of the city; three uncles, Bernard (Jennie) Johnson of Greensboro, Charles (Della) Johnson and Corbett (Jessie) Johnson of Detroit, Michigan; three devoted friends, Tiffany Alston, Cassandra White and Tamika Austin; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and admirers; and The Mount Carmel Baptist Church Family.
