OBITUARY

Mrs. Cheryl Denise Lambson Floyd was born to Hilda M. Lambson and the late Leland D. Lambson, Sr. in Halifax County, North Carolina on September 12, 1961. She was educated in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools and graduated from East Forsyth High School in 1980. She then attended Forsyth Technical Community College. Cheryl's work history included positions held at The Burger King, Hanes Brands and APL Logistics.

She became a member and began her early Christian Education at Saint Stephens Missionary Baptist Church. And on April 12, 1986, she was united in marriage to Steven A. Floyd at that church. Their union was blessed with the birth of twin daughters, Yvonne Cherelle and Yvette Callie. Max, her beloved dog, joined the family in 2017 on Mother's Day.

Cheryl was a big Duke University Basketball fan and was in attendance when they won their National Championships in 2010 and 2015 in Indianapolis, Indiana. She was also a big NFL fan, loved to watch television and loved working with flowers in her yard. She was known for being an avid lover of shopping.

Cheryl was a devoted wife and mother. She loved her family and cherished her relationships with many friends. Her infectious smile will long be remembered by all with whom she came in contact. Cheryl was deeply loved and will be sorely missed.

Cheryl Denise Lambson Floyd departed this early life at her home in Winston-Salem on Saturday, November 25, 2017, surrounded by her loving family. She was preceded in death by her father, Leland Douglas Lambson, Sr.

Those family members who survive and who will forever cherish loving memories of her include Steven A. Floyd, her devoted husband of thirty-one years; their twin daughters, Yvonne Cherelle and Yvette Callie; her loving mother, Hilda M. Lambson; her sister, Angela G. Lambson of Winston-Salem, NC; her brother, Leland D. Lambson, Jr. (Judy) of Virginia Beach, VA; mother-in-law, Doris Elliott of Hyattsville, MD; sisters-in-law, Dr. Jannis V. Floyd of Mansfield, PA and Lisa (Donald) Gaw of Clinton, IN; brother-in-law, Daniel Elliott of Silver Spring, MD; her two nieces who were her caregivers during her illness, Dominica N. Lambson and Briana Watson; and a host of other nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family members and many friends.

We thank the doctors, nurses and support staff at The Comprehensive Cancer Center at WFUBMC. They made us feel like family as we battled this terrible disease for six plus years. The pharmacy techs, valet personnel, CNAs, Unit Secretaries, Cancer Center Support Program and the many volunteers and others who were with us during our struggle. They will always have a special place in our hearts. We also thank the caring staff of The Hospice and Palliative Care Center. Although Cheryl expressed her desire to be brought home upon her release from the hospital, Hospice nurses, nursing assistants and other staff were present and accommodating.

I'll Meet You at the Gate

-by Barbara Bailey

*A beautiful garden now stands alone,
Missing the one who nurtured it, but she is gone,
Her flowers still bloom and the sun, it still shines,
But the rain is like tear drops, for the ones left behind,*

*The weeds lay waiting to take the garden's beauty away,
But beautiful memories of its keeper are in our hearts to stay,
She loved every flower even some that were weeds,
So much love she would plant with each little seed,*

*But just like her flowers she was part of God's plan
So when it was time He reached down his hand
He looked through the garden searching for the best
That's when He found Cheryl; it was her time to rest*

*It was hard for those who loved her, to just let her go,
But God had a spot in his garden, that needed a gentle soul,
So when you start missing Cheryl, remember if you just wait,
When God has a spot in his garden, she'll meet you at the gate.*

Journey

The suffering has ended and Cheryl's at rest
And while we believe that God knows best,
We restless warriors in continual praise
Held onto hope for our banner to raise.

But the true warrior fought the valiant fight,
She accepted the challenge, her goal in sight.
Brave was she. As were Steve and the twins.
United in battle and the journey begins.

While it seems an ending, she is free of pain,
The combat is over yet our sorrows remain.
With Cheryl now an angel, you are never alone
We all are with you as the journey goes on.
