Life Is But A Stopping Place

*Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys.
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the lord*

OUR PRAYER FOR OUR FRIENDS

*May God always bless and enrich your lives with love and friendship
as much as you have enriched ours with your presence, your prayers, your friendship and your generosity.*

OBITUARY

“The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.” Psalm 23:1

Mr. Roger Lee Tyner, affectionately called “Walkertown Red,” was born to the late James Lewis Tyner, Sr. and Letha Peak Tyner in Forsyth County, North Carolina, on October 13, 1935.

He graduated from Carver Consolidated High School in 1955 and he gave honorable military service for his country in the United States Army.

Mr. Tyner worked as a machine operator for RJ Reynolds Tobacco Company prior to his retirement from the company.

He was a member of Red Rock Lodge #809, Prince Hall Masons. He had been a member of the Masonic Order for more than fifty years and he was the longest serving Tyler in the 30th District. “Walkertown Red” enjoyed hunting, turkey shooting and riding motorcycles.

Mr. Roger Lee Tyner passed away at his home in Walkertown, North Carolina on Tuesday, December 5, 2017. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Betty Tyner; two brothers, Theodore and Wade Tyner.

Those family members who survive and who will forever cherish loving memories of him include his daughters, Debra Robinson and Sabrina Allen; two grandchildren, Keyshon (Lartisa) Allen and Nakeyta Allen; three great grandchildren, Rashaad, Asharyah and Aiyonna; his sister, Nancy Tyner; two brothers, James Tyner and Howard (Juanita) Tyner; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other loved ones and many friends.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me
I wish you wouldn't cry the way you did today
While thinking of the many things we did not get to say*

*I know how much you love me as much as I love you
Each time that you think of me I know you will miss me too
When tomorrow starts without me please try to understand That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand*

*The angel said my place was ready in heaven far above
And that I would have to leave behind all those I dearly Love
But when I walked through heaven's gates I felt so much at home
When GOD looked down and smiled at me from His golden throne*

*He said this Is Eternity and all I promised you Today for life on earth is done but here it starts a new
I promise no tomorrow for today will always last
And since each day's the exact same way there is no longing for the past*

*So when tomorrow starts without me do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me... remember I'm right here in your heart*

Feel No Guilt in Laughter

*Feel no guilt in laughter; he'd know how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile that he is not here to share.*

*You cannot grieve forever; he would not want you to.
he'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.*

*So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
the days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.*

Let memories surround you, a word someone may say will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, or a day,

that brings him back as clearly as though he were still here, and fills you with the feeling that he is always near.

*For if you keep those moments,
you will never be apart
and he will live forever... locked safe within your heart.*
