Our Prayer for This Life

Thank You, Father. It is not how long we live that counts, but how beautifully we live that matters.

Help us to remember that it is the donation of life more than duration that adds eternal significance to a life.

We thank You for the treasured memories that will forever enrich our lives because of Deon "Bubba" McDonald, whom you have called to live and love with you.

Help us to make our lives more dedicated, more devoted, that we may through beautiful living justify in fruitful and creative labor the longer years you are giving us.

*In the name of Our Lord, Your Only Son, who was so young himself when he died on the cross.
Amen*

OUR PRAYER FOR OUR FRIENDS

May God always bless and enrich your lives with love and friendship as much as you have enriched ours with your presence, your prayers, your friendship and your generosity.

LIFE REFLECTIONS

*A good name is to be chosen rather than great wealth.
To be respected is better than silver and gold. Proverbs 22:1*

Mr. Deon Derell McDonald, affectionately known as “Bubba” to family and friends, was born on January 9, 1985 to Levi “Bobby” Bradley and Josephine McDonald Bradley in Bishopville, South Carolina.

He was a product of the Bishopville South Carolina School System. After graduation, he held several jobs in the Bishopville area and was known to be a hard worker. He was an avid fan of the Carolina Panthers Football Team and he enjoyed travelling and cooking. He will always be remembered for his infectious laugh and sense of humor.

Deon moved to Winston-Salem, North Carolina a few years ago. Soon thereafter, he met his beloved Candace Anderson. The couple married and their union was blessed with a son, Oliver Ethan.

He was employed at Pet Diary/Dean Foods until he passed away unexpectedly, at his home in Winston-Salem on Monday, May 1, 2017.

Deon Derell McDonald is survived by his wife, Candace Anderson McDonald of the home; two sons, Oliver Ethan of the home and Devin McDonald of Bishopville; his parents, Levi Bradley and Josephine Bradley of Bishopville; a sister, Keionda Bradley of Alexandria, Virginia; his mother-in-law, Pamela Anderson of Winston-Salem; seven aunts, Mary (Gaidy) Fortune, Dorothy Slater, Alphine Johnson, Carolstine Mickel, Annie Crim and Ruth Ann Singleton, all of Bishopville; five uncles, Johnny McDonald, Henry McDonald, McKenzie (Mary) McDonald, of Bishopville, Garnell (Dorothenia) Bradley of Patterson, New Jersey and Earl (Diane) Anderson of Washington, DC; a special great aunt, Lee Faye Mack and a cousin, Hazel Mack, both of Winston-Salem; and a host of other cousins, extended family members and close friends.
