This Is Just a Resting Place

*Sometimes the road of life seems long as we travel through the years ...
And with hearts that are broken and eyes brimful of tears.*

*We falter in our weariness and sink beside the way ...
But God leans down and whispers
"Child there'll be another day."*

*And the road will grow much smoother and much easier to face ...
So do not be disheartened

Our Sincere Gratitude

We are grateful for your words of comfort,
your acts of kindness
and all other expressions of love and sympathy shown to us during these very difficult days of love and loss.

And when the winter of our sorrow is gone,
and the flowers of loving memories spring up,
We will remember you!

Obituary

Georgia Juanita Stimpson Glenn was born to the late Robert Payne and Ada Stimpson in Yadkin County, North Carolina on January 12, 1939. She was a graduate of Yadkin High School.

She began her early Christian Education as a member of Benbow Chapel A. M. E. Zion Church in East Bend, North Carolina.

Georgia was a devoted wife to the late David L. Glenn, until his passing in 1989. She was also a loving mother to her children and an ideal homemaker. She enjoyed playing Bingo, reading and Saturday morning trips to the Farmers' Market. She was especially attentive to her favorite soap opera, "The Young and The Restless."

Mrs. Georgia Juanita Stimpson Glenn left this world to be with the Lord from Forsyth Medical Center in Winston-Salem, North Carolina on Sunday, July 9, 2017, following an extended period of illness. She was predeceased by her parents, Robert Payne and Ada Stimpson; and her husband, David L. Glenn.

Those family members who remain and who will forever cherish loving memories of her include her daughters, Ms. Valerie Glenn of Charlotte, NC and Ms. Sonya Glenn of the city; three granddaughters, Crystal Medley of Atlanta, GA and Carolyn and Michele Medley of Charlotte; three great grandchildren, Christopher, Aiden and Melody; a dear aunt, Lillian Stimpson; a dear cousin, Lola Black; special friends, Annette Nichols and Ramona Brown; and a host of other relatives and friends.
