OBITUARY

“Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.” Psalm 30:5

Ms. Kimberly Alise Miller was born to Larry Miller and the late Margaret Tyson Miller in Washington, DC on November 22, 1969.

She was a graduate of North Forsyth High School in Winston-Salem, North Carolina and she furthered her education at Carolina Beauty School and the Living Arts Institute. Her varied employment background included positions with Liberty Hardware Company, Galaxy Elite All Stars and Ardmore Family Practice.

Kimberly was a beloved mother with a beautiful and loving heart. She was passionate about coaching and cheerleading. And she was fond of cooking and baking.

Ms. Kimberly Alise Miller passed away unexpectedly at WFU Baptist Medical Center in Winston-Salem on Sunday, July 30, 2017. In addition to her mother, she was preceded in death by her grandmother, “Wince:” and her uncles, Nathaniel Miller and Steven Miller.

Those family members who survive and who loved her dearly include her children, Darrell Turner, Breahna Miller and Adrian Ladson; and her memory will forever be cherished by her grandchildren, Alahna McCalister and Erik and Lyric Turner; her father, Larry Miller; a sister, Sharon Autry; cousins who were like siblings, Nita, Christy and Brian Miller; uncle, Michael (Linda) Miller; aunt, Marian Harris; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and many special friends.

“THE GIFT OF LETTING GO”

The angels gathered near your bed, so very close to you,
For they knew the pain and suffering you were going through,
We thought about so many things, so we held tightly to you hand,
Oh, how we wished that you were strong and happy once again.
But your eyes were looking homeward, to that place beyond the sky,
Where Jesus held his outstretched arms, it was time to say good-bye.
We struggled with our selfish thoughts, for we wanted you to stay,
So we could walk and talk again, like we did just yesterday.
But Jesus knew the answer and we knew He loved you so,
So we gave to you life's greatest gift,
The gift of letting go.

-Johnson and Morse

A PRAYER FOR UNDERSTANDING

Author: Jilchristy Dee (excerpted)

Dear Lord as we now gather near to mourn the one we love
Bestow your understanding here, your peace from up above

Please heal our hearts, it hurts so much that we must say goodbye!
Support us through these dark, sad hours as we remember, grieve and cry

Although we cannot understand, we pray we'll someday know
Why you took "Kimberly" away from us, back to Your heavenly home
Give us your strength and help us through the days and years to come
May sweet mem'ries warm our hearts and minds, like golden rays of sun

Please let "Kimberly" stay close nearby to watch over us we plead
A guardian angel's support from heaven whenever we have need
Surround us with Your love and hope and console us in our grief
May bitter sorrow be lessened 'til it becomes accepting peace

AFTERGLOW

*"I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done."*

Acknowledgment

For the living testimonies of faith and friendship
which come to mind with your every remembrance of us

We thank God from whom all blessings flow!
