

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

by David M. Romano

When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not here to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me
I wish you wouldn't cry the way you did today
While thinking of the many things we did not get to say

I know how much you love me as much as I love you
Each time that you think of me I know you will miss me too

When tomorrow starts without me please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand

The angel said my place was ready in heaven far above
And that I would have to leave behind all those I dearly love

But when I walked through Heaven's gates I felt so much at home
When God looked down and smiled at me from his golden throne

He said eternity and all I promised you
Today for life on earth is done but here it starts anew
I promise no tomorrow for today will always last
And since each day's the exact same way
There is no longing for the past

So when tomorrow starts without me do not think we're apart
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart

Obituary

Linda Diane Washington Marshall was born on July 22, 1955 in Winston-Salem, North Carolina to the late James Marvin Washington and Levolia Booker Washington. She attended the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County schools and was a graduate of North Forsyth High School. Linda furthered her education at Forsyth Technical Community College and spent years as a Pharmacy Technician at Baptist Hospital and later in customer service management for several retail stores.

Linda received her early Christian education at Shiloh Baptist Church. She was a devoted member of St. Paul United Methodist Church.

Linda loved spending time with her friends and family, playing spades and shopping. She enjoyed crafts, knitting, crocheting, and taking pictures, which was evident on her Facebook page. Linda LOVED the fair, attending downtown festivals especially when her favorite bands were performing where she could show off her favorite dance moves. Life is a party and Linda believed she should have one every chance she could.

Linda passed away peacefully on Sunday, April 22, 2018 at the Kate B. Reynolds Hospice Home. In addition to her father, she was preceded in death by her granddaughter, Ayanna Al-Malik and her sister, Brenda Turner.

Memories of Linda will be forever cherished by her devoted husband, Richard Marshall; children: LaQuondra (Rahjan) Al-Malik and Richard Marshall, Jr.; her devoted mother, Levolia Washington; loving sister, Beverly A. Smith; three loving grandsons: Shaheem Al-Malik, Hassan Al-Malik, and Rajon Kinzer; a loving granddaughter, Tamir Brown; sisters-in-law: Teresa Marshall and Tammy Marshall; eight nieces; four nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Special thanks to the St. Paul United Methodist Church Family and to each of you individually for your many acts of kindness and most of all, your prayers.
