THE OBITUARY

Carl Daniel Lewis, was born on July 19, 1952 to the late Oscar Lewis and Catherine (Adams) Lewis in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. He was considered the “knee-high” child of eight children. Carl attended Atkins High School and graduated in 1971. Following high school, he enlisted in the United States Air Force where he became a procurement specialist. As an airman, he traveled around the United States and was stationed in places such as upper Michigan and Denver, Colorado. While in Denver, he fell in love with the Denver Broncos, which remained his favorite football team for most of his life. Carl was also stationed in Germany for several years.

He left the Air Force to raise his only son, Demonique, affectionately known as “Nique”. During this time, Carl was employed by various companies including: RJ Reynolds, Roses and Forsyth Hospital. Several years later, Carl furthered his education by earning a Bachelor of Science in Applied Science in Psychology in 1998 from Winston-Salem State University.

Carl loved family and family gatherings. Later in life, he suffered with poor health which limited his mobility. Often, he reached out to his nieces, grandnieces and grandnephews: Jacqueline, Sonetta, Eddie, Le’Isha and Erica. His joy was hanging out with his family. He even participated in a rap music video with his grandnephew Eddie (Coco Jefe) Cruz.

Carl Daniel Lewis, transitioned into heaven on June 27, 2018 while resting. In addition to his parents, Carl was preceded in death by his siblings: Doretha (Adams) Ennels and Barbara (Lewis) Mitchell; close niece, Le’Isha Adams.

He is survived by his son: Rev. Demonique L. Lewis “Nick” (Yolanda); four grandchildren, Andrew, Kezia, Stephen and Jadon; siblings, Oscar Lewis Jr. (Edna), Robert L. Lewis (Janice), Donald R. Lewis (Yvonne), James M. Lewis and Eleanor Gibson; devoted nieces, Jacqueline Lipscomb (Ernest Hill), Sonetta Davis (Turner); close nephew, Eddie Cruz (Tasha); and a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

A private interment is scheduled for Tuesday, July 3, 2018 at Salisbury National Cemetery.
