Her Time to Fly

*You look back on memories you forgot you had,
And at times you'll smile even though it hurts so bad.*

*Your mother was a special woman and no one can take her place,
You'll find a piece of mind when you remember her smiling face.*

*Your mother is an angel now she flies high above the rest,
And in your hearts always and forever she will be the best!*

*She has earned her wings and it's time for her to fly,
I know it hurts, no one is ever ready to say good-bye.*

*She will be your guardian angel through the rest of your life,
Helping lead you on the path between what's wrong and right.*

*She has taken good memories with her as she's flown away,
Up to Heaven free of pain which is her new home to stay.*

*So although you can not see her and you wish she could be here,
Your mother can always hear you and your mother will always care.*

*So as you cry your tears remember your mother's love,
Being sent to you from her, from the beautiful Heaven above.*

It's her time to fly!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We Will Remember Betty

*When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother, and thy mother;
and I am persuaded that in thee also.
(II Timothy 1:5 (KJV adapted))*

Mrs. Betty Little Witherspoon was born March 5, 1941, in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Her parents were the late Paul and Elizabeth Little.

She quietly slipped away to her eternal home on Friday, January 12, 2018, at Carolinas Medical Center in Concord, North Carolina, following an extended period of illness. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Golder S. Witherspoon; a sister, Paulette L. Burch, and a brother, Danny R. Little.

She graduated from Atkins High School. She also earned a Bachelor's Degree from Winston-Salem State University and a Master's Degree from North Carolina Agricultural & Technical State University, both in Early Childhood Education.

She worked as a teacher in various cities before returning to Winston-Salem where she ultimately retired from the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County School System. She eventually moved to Charlotte, North Carolina with her daughter, son in-law and grandchildren.

Betty was an educator and a loving caregiver. Because of her sweet, kind and loving spirit, on many occasions she was told she would make a great nurse. She would never complain if she was asked to do anything for anyone.

Often, she tutored family members and neighbors' kids in Reading and Math. Her nieces and nephews would always call "Aunt Betty" with any math problems and she would happily help them. She also loved watching football and tennis.

She leaves to cherish her memory her two daughters, Angela Holt Burgess (Stacy) and Monique P. Holt; three grandchildren, Marquel Holt, Madison Burgess and Morgan Burgess; one brother, Bobby R. Little; two sisters, Minnie L. Stephens (Tyro) and Pamela L. Winn (Booker); a very special Aunt, Hazel C. Morton; and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.
