Acknowledgement

Our hearts are made glad in the midst of our sorrow
by the outpouring of love and concern for us.

We praise God for the way that you have demonstrated the love of Christ through your prayers, words of comfort and genuine acts of friendship and kindness.

Thank you for caring and sharing.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Verna Coleman Williams was born to the late Boss Coleman and Geraldine Kears Coleman in Forsyth County, North Carolina on November 21, 1936.

She was educated in the public schools of Winston-Salem/ Forsyth County and graduated from Atkins High School in 1954.

Mrs. Williams briefly worked with the dietary staff of Salem Academy. And for several years, she worked as a circuit board operator at Western Electric Company, until declining health prevented her from continuing to work.

She was a faithful member of St. Paul United Methodist Church. At one time, she was a pianist and organist for several churches, including Zion Memorial Baptist Church in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Verna Coleman Williams passed away at her home in Winston-Salem on Saturday, February 24, 2018. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, John T. Williams; a son, Ricky Coleman; and her sister Ella Coleman.

Loving memories of her will forever be cherished by her sons, Anthony Coleman, Keith Williams and Brian (Camille) Williams; nine grandchildren, Theresa Thomas Higgins, Kimora Williams, Kairo Williams, Breanna Conrad, Brian L. Williams, Jr., Miles Williams, Tonia (Jamal) Williams, Anthony Leon (Marquita) Coleman, II and Alecia (James) Rodgers; eight great grandchildren, Kamden Higgins, Kylynn Higgins, Amira Scott, Zaria Williams, Imani Williams, Malakhi Williams, Bryson Coleman and MiKaylah Rodgers; and several extended family members and friends.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.
