OBITUARY

Mrs. Earlene Davis Lun was born to the late Samuel C. Davis and Flora Robinson Davis in Florence, South Carolina on June 28, 1938.

A life-long, dedicated custodian, Mrs. Lunn was an expert at keeping things clean, orderly and in spotless condition. She was loyal to her profession and all of her assignments were performed in precise detail. No job was complete until her stamp of approval certified that the work was excellent!

Her employment history was varied. She worked at General Electric for more than twenty years, prior to a layoff. She briefly worked with the contracted custodial staff of RJ Reynolds Tobacco Company. She finally went to work at WFU Baptist Medical Center and retired after nearly ten years of employment in the medical center's house-keeping department.

Still not tired – Following her traditional retirement, Mrs. Lunn took a part-time job as a Food Sampler for Costco. She remained in that position until declining health prevailed.

Earlene Lunn's life was full; she was a wife, a mother, an independent contractor for her personal cleaning services. And she even took the time to open her home and become a surrogate mother for many children who could benefit from the nurture and care of a loving mother. She was a lifetime member of Temple Holiness Apostolic Church where she faithfully served as a deaconess.

Mrs. Earlene Davis Lunn departed this life at The Danby House in Winston-Salem, North Carolina on Wednesday, February 21, 2018. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Early Lunn; her daughters, Ethel Scott and Avalena Artis; two surrogate daughters, Cheryl Bethea and Patricia Thompson; her siblings, Sam Davis, Flora Wells, Robert Davis, Pearl Bynum, Lucille Timmons, Dan Davis, Willie Davis, Leroy Davis, and three additional siblings who passed away at a very young age.

Those family members who survive and who will forever cherish fond memories of her include a son, Clifton Lunn; her surrogate daughter, Cassandra B. (Ricky) Shine; grandchildren, Daniel Artis, John Moore, Jazmine Moore, Tomalex Hairston, Leona Wells, Brenda Wells and Calvin Wells; siblings, Elsie Redden and Jeremiah Davis; two sons-in-law, Ernest Scott and Frank Artis; two sisters-in-law; a host of nieces and nephews, including Diann D. Hairston and Edith Chance, who were her devoted caregivers; many great grandchildren, cousins, extended family members and several friends, including special friends, Cynthia Adams and Ruby Moore.

SAFELY HOME

*I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
in this everlasting light.*

*All the pain and grief is over,
every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
safely home in Heaven at last.*

*Did you wonder I so calmly trod
the valley of the shade?
Oh! but Jesus' love illuminated every dark and fearful glade.*

*And He came Himself to meet me
In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
could I have one doubt or dread?*

*Then you must not grieve so sorely;
for I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows, pray to trust our Father's will*

*There is work still waiting for you,
so you must not idle stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth—
you shall rest in Jesus' land.*

*When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you home;
Oh, the rapture of the meeting,
oh, the joy to see you come!*
