In The Hands of God, Even Death Is A Time For Rejoicing
~ Helen Steiner Rice

And so when death brings weeping
And the heart is filled with sorrow,
It beckons us to seek God,
As we ask about "Tomorrow" ...
And in these hours of "heart-hurt",
We draw closer to believing.
That even death in God's Hands,
Is not a cause for grieving.
But a time for joy in knowing,
Death is just a stepping-stone.
To a life that's everlasting,
Such as we have never known.

The Obituary

Mrs. Juanita Harris Dover, 90, was born on April 16, 1928 in Winston-Salem, NC to the late John Harris and Mattie Bell Harris. After being of service to others for many years, she passed away on Monday, September 10, 2018 at The Danby House. She attended the local schools, had confessed her faith in Jesus Christ, and was a proud member of New Bethel Baptist Church.

Mrs. Dover loved spending time with her family and they loved the fabulous meals she prepared with great care. Others outside of her family enjoyed her culinary skills. She spent many years cooking for the children at First Baptist Church Day Care on Highland Avenue.

In addition to her parents, Mrs. Dover was preceded in death by her husband, Ernest Adam Dover, Sr.; her daughter, Barbara Dover; her son, Dr. Ernest A. Dover, Jr.; her twin sister, Cuanita Harris; sister, Margaret Keaton; and her brother, John Harris, Jr.

She is survived by her children: Michelle (Melvin) Richardson, Mary Elizabeth (Curtis) Pelzer, Shirley (Samuel) Smith of Williamstown, NJ and Kirk Dover; a host of grandchildren and great grandchildren; sister, Willie Mae Thomas of Cleveland, OH; daughter-in-law, Linda Dover of Wichita Falls, TX; special friend, Sandra Clark; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
