Thank You

To everyone who loved and comforted her during her journey on earth, we thank you. If you whispered a prayer or shared a memory since her passing, we thank you.

Most of all, we thank you for helping us celebrate a life well-lived.

Special thanks to the Nurses, CNA's, Dietary Assistants and other staff of the 3rd Floor of Winston-Salem Nursing and Rehabilitation Center for providing excellent care of our beloved Mary Frances Caldwell for the past 5+ years.

The Obituary

Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

Exodus 20:12

Miss Mary Frances Caldwell, affectionately known as “Sang” was born on July 2, 1917 to the late Ervin R. Caldwell and Janie Eighner Caldwell in Newberry, SC. She passed away peacefully on September 18, 2018 at the blessed age of 101.

She was a 1935 graduate of the historic Atkins High School. With dedication, she spent over 40 years employed by the Eleanor and Egbert Davis family, retiring in October, 1994.

Miss Caldwell enjoyed reading, cooking, eating candy and drinking Pepsi. She loved being fashionable when selecting her clothes, but most of all she loved being with her family.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by sisters: Mabel Caldwell and Gwendolyn Wolfe; brothers: Robert L. Caldwell, James T. Caldwell, Ervin R. Caldwell, Jr., John W. Caldwell and Theodore Caldwell; sisters-in-law: Pauline Rice Caldwell, Janie Thacker Caldwell and Eva Caldwell; brother-in-law, Eugene Wolfe, Sr.; niece, Daphne Caldwell and nephews: John L. Caldwell and Johnnie Green.

She is survived by her sister: Sarah L. (Charlie) Brown; nieces: Melissa (James “Bernie”) Adams, Beverly Brown, Pamela Brown (Kerry, Sr.) Campbell, Deborah Caldwell and Patricia Caldwell; nephews: Thomas Michael (Tremenna) Caldwell, Terence Caldwell, Eugene E. (Sandy) Wolfe, Jr., John W. Caldwell, Jr.; Darryl R. (Gail) Brown, Ronald Dubose, Kevin Adams, James Adams, Jr., Kerry Campbell, Jr. and Corey Campbell; other relatives and friends.
