

MISS ME BUT LET ME GO

When I come to the end of the road,
and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low,
remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take,
and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
go to the friends we know.
Bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me but let me go.

Obituary

Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is well above rubies. Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her.

Proverbs 31:10, 28

Mrs. Louise Galloway Gray Crosby was born in Winston-Salem, NC on January 19, 1940 to the late Mildred Galloway. She was a graduate of Reynolds High School. Louise spent her life as a full-time wife and mother. Mrs. Crosby was a faithful member of Exodus Baptist Church where she served on the usher board and was a mother of the church.

In addition to her mother, Mrs. Crosby was preceded in death by both of her husbands, James Burwin Gray and George Crosby; her grandfather, Russell Galloway; and uncles, Slim, Bud and Jarvis Galloway.

She is survived by: her daughters; Sharon Sheff and Doris Dargan; sons, James (Catherine) Galloway, Kennard Galloway and Raymond Galloway; twenty grandchildren; twenty-three great grandchildren; an aunt, Reba Galloway; and an uncle, Reuben Galloway.
