THE OBITUARY

Ms. Debra Joanne Robinson was born on September 29, 1958 to George Ladell Robinson and Carolyn Lash Robinson in Winston-Salem, NC. She was educated in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools attending North Forsyth High School. She spent many years employed in the textile industry until she became a full-time mother and homemaker following the birth of her daughter.

Ms. Robinson was a member of New Hope Missionary Baptist Church, where she was baptized.

Debra had a loving and giving spirit. She never met a stranger and that was exhibited by her many friends with whom she enjoyed laughing and talking. She loved Rhythm & Blues and Gospel music, watching movies and visiting museums and historical sites. Debra was known for preparing “some of the best soul food you ever tasted!” She kept things neat and clean, especially her children. Debra loved spending time with her children, grandchildren and family but was known for being at least 2 hours late to family gatherings, even if she planned the event!

Her nephew, Ajmal D. Rehman and great aunt, Melinda Lash, preceded her in death this year.

She is survived by her children: Barry A. Robinson and Denea M. Starks; five grandchildren, Iman Alford, Rahim Robinson, and Ta'Ciana Robinson (with whom she spent a great deal of time), Dy'Quan Robinson and Nassir Hassan; her parents Carolyn Robinson and George (Shirley) Robinson; great-grandson, Jy' Sen Wright; siblings, Brenda Robinson-Rehman, George L. Robinson, Terry D. Robinson, and Inga Robinson-Riley (Jerry); aunts, Frances Lash Cloud and Nellie Conrad-Jacobs; uncle, Jessie Conrad; nieces and nephews, Nakisha L. Robinson, Artanda A. Robinson, Tiffany Robinson, Tameka Pate-Pickett, Tiana Robinson, Brandi Stephenson, George "Lil Butch" Robinson, and Tim Robinson; a host of loving great-nieces, great-nephews and cousins; and a very special friend, Juanita McCormick.

OUR TRIBUTE TO DEBRA

You Meant So Much

You meant so much to all of us

You were special and that's no lie

You brightened up the darkest day

And the cloudiest sky

Your smile alone warmed our hearts

Your laugh was like music to hear

We would give absolutely anything

To have you well and standing near

Not a second passes

When you're not on our minds

Your love we will never forget

The hurt will ease in time

Many tears we have seen and cried

They have all poured out like rain

We know that you are happy now

And no longer in pain.
