Obituary

Mr. James Eddie Conrad “Bootsie” was born November 11, 1928 to the late Ruth Conrad. He answered the Lord’s call on March 17, 2019. A proud veteran, he served for two years and twenty-two months in the US Army and was honorably discharged. He was preceded in death by his mother and his good friend, Fred McLean.

At Dreamland Park Missionary Baptist Church he was known as a dependable and trusted member and friend. Like clockwork, at 8 am, he would unlock the doors of the church. He served faithfully as the Financial Director and as a Trustee. He took great pride in his attire and was known as a snappy dresser. Most of all, he was God’s servant who loved his church family.

For thirty years he worked for Wake Forest University, distinguished himself as a exemplary employee and concluded his employment as a custodial supervisor. He leaves to cherish his memory devoted and loving caregivers: Algefields and Barbara Cain; devoted friends, Dwight Johnson (Katie), Johnny Austin, Donald Ray Pelzer; devoted cousins, Cornell and Eva O’Neal, Milton Houston, Wendy “Janee” Maddox (Edward), Raymond O’Neal, Dr. Barbara O’Neal, Ronald O’Neal (Tonya); loving church family; and a host of other family and friends.

Take My Hand

by Ron Tranmer ©

*Beyond Earth's veil I cannot see but my faith is strong, I trust in Thee.
I know in time I'll understand.
Until then Lord, please take my hand.*

*My purpose here, may I fulfill,
and in all things do Thy will.
The trials of life may I withstand.
Walk with me Lord and take my hand.*

*Then when I breathe my final breath and close my eyes in earthly death,
may I not leave this world alone.
Lord, take my hand and walk me home.*

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Our Family Chain

*We little knew that morning
That God would call your name.
In life we loved you dearly;
In death we'll do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.
You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
You are always by our side.
Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.*
