

Although a leaf has fallen from our family tree, because of her love, we will still remain strong as a family.

To all those gathered here, we thank you for your love, prayers and support today and in the days to come.

A Place in My Heart - Sounds of Blackness

I tried to help
You to succeed
Gave you your wants
And supplied all your needs
Each day I pray
That you're okay
In every way
Being all you can be

'Cause there's so much
To learn
And there's so little time
Before your life slips away
Yeah
But there's one place you can be safe

Yes, you have a place in my heart
No matter where you go
It's never too far
Yes, you have a place in my heart
Even if you go astray
All you have to do is come back home
You know you have a place in my hear

Now that you're grown
And on your own
Don't feel like you
Are out there all alone
No matter what
You're going through
A mother's love
Will always comfort you

'Cause there's so much
To learn
And there's so little time
Before your life slips away
But there's one place you can be safe

Yes, you have a place in my heart
No matter where you go
It's never too far
Yes, you have a place in my heart
Even if you go astray
All you have to do is come back home
Yeah yeah yeah yeah, you have a place in my heart
Yeah yeah, you have a place in my heart

Obituary

Mrs. Lillian Elizabeth Patterson Bailey, affectionately known as "Liz", was born in Winston-Salem, NC to the late Mamie Hairston Patterson and George J.H. Patterson, Sr. on July 20, 1956. She was educated in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County public schools and was a graduate of East Forsyth High School. She later attended Forsyth Technical Community College and Aurora Beauty College.

She worked for and retired after 32 hardworking years from R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company. Mrs. Bailey was a member of St. Stephen Missionary Baptist Church. She enjoyed singing, shopping, and eating crab legs.

The family has experienced great sadness since her unexpected passing on Sunday, June 23, 2019. "Liz" was truly the life of the party with her infectious laughter and beautiful spirit. She will be greatly missed to all who knew her. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brothers, James Hairston and John Edward Fulp; and sister May Ruth Patterson.

She will be lovingly remembered by her husband, Marvin L. Bailey Sr. and their children: Timothy E. (Leisha) Patterson, Marvin Bailey, Jr., LaTonya Funderburke and God daughter, Johna Dalton; brother, George J. (Laura) Patterson; her sisters, Lorraine H. Mayes, Rosa Patterson, and Alice P. Carter. She leaves a legacy to be cherished by her six grandchildren: Timia, Tisoko, Timothy Jr., Theodore, Laniya, and Caden; one great granddaughter Nasiima -Zyrai; sisters-in-law, Gwendolyn Smith and Audrey Hairston. "Liz" will also be remembered forever by her numerous nieces, nephews, extended family, and her dear best friends Carolyn Dalton, Bonita Crosby, and Ruth Smith.

Her family is honoring her today by wearing black to symbolize her excellence and gold for her golden heart.
