Ronald Emanuel McFadden departed this life on Monday, June 24, 2019 at Wake Forest Baptist Hospital at the age of 29. He was born on August 22, 1989 in Winston Salem, North Carolina.

Ronald attended R.B. Glenn High School, where he graduated June 2007. He worked at the Atrium Windows & Doors. He also attended Central Triad Church.

His hobbies were playing video games, coaching and playing basketball. He enjoyed spending time at the Sprague Street Park Community Center, where he met a mass of friends whom he played basketball with.

Ronald's presence will be missed. His character was being silly, making people laugh as well as being humble at the same time.

He leaves to cherish his fond memories, a dedicated mother Glendia Marie Baker and father Adrian Le'Mont McFadden. As well as three Sisters; Elisha Gray Wilson (Jason) of Charlotte NC, Etoya McFadden of Charlotte NC, Paris McFadden of Winston Salem, NC. Also, three Brothers; Adrian Le'Mont McFadden Jr., Chad Hopkins, Kenneth Elder all of Winston Salem, NC. In addition, six aunts; Selena B Page (Donnie) of High Point NC, Wilhemena McNeil, Cleo McCoy both of Winston Salem NC, Patricia A Brown of Fairmont NC, Bobbie A Moore (James) of Lumberton NC, Ruby L Brown of High Point. Plus four uncles; Joshua Baker of High Point NC, John Willie Baker of Fairmont NC, James Archie Baker (Willene) of Orrum NC, David Baker of Chadbourn NC, and a host of cousins, relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his sister LaShaunda Marie Baker, and his Aunt Ethel May Harris.
