THE OBITUARY

Mrs. Hattie McKinney Elliott fulfilled her earthly mission on Wednesday, March 27, 2019. She lived a full life, being a friend to the friendless, caring for family, serving the church, and educating children. She and her late husband, Mr. Samuel Calvin Elliott were known for their kindness, generosity and hospitality. Their home was always open to family, friends and others.

Mrs. Elliott was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Samuel and Eunice Amanda McKinney on August 2, 1929 in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. She was joined in marriage to Samuel C. Elliott of Fayetteville, North Carolina on June 25, 1961.

She was educated in the Winston-Salem Public Schools; a graduate of Winston-Salem State University where she received her Bachelor of Science degree; and New York University where she received the Master of Education. She was a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority. She had a strong passion for teaching young children, and taught in the Winston-Salem Public schools until her retirement.

Mrs. Elliott loved her church, Goler Metropolitan AME Zion. She was twelve years old when her parents, brother, Andrew, and sister, Judith joined the congregation in 1942, as charter members. She was dedicated to serving the church in several capacities from her youth; singing with the Goler Glee Club and the Cathedral Choir; Sunday School teacher, member of the Home and Overseas Missionary Society; Church Historian and other capacities.

The Cathedral Choir of Goler Metropolitan is known locally and nationally for its outstanding renditions of the Easter Cantata, “The Seven Last Words of Christ” by Theodore Dubois. Mrs. Elliott served as the narrator for 30 performances, which had become her personal ministry. The Goler Church family applauded her work and honored her by dedicating a performance to her honor. They chose this scripture, James 4:10: “Humble yourselves before the Lord and He will lift up”, which is so fitting for her.

In addition to her parents and husband, Mrs. Elliott was preceded in death by her brother, Andrew McKinney and niece, Delores Settle.

She is survived by her sister, Dr. Judith McKinney Settle; niece, Joy Settle Goode; great niece, Keisha Scott; great nephew, Christian Settle; sister-in-law, Charlesetta McKinney; “special niece and caregiver”, Linda Mincey; and a host of cousins.
