

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road,
and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low,
remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take,
and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
go to the friends we know.
Bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me but let me go.

Obituary

"His Lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord. "
Matthew 25:21 KJV

Mr. Chalmers W. Williams was born in Winston-Salem, NC on June 3, 1946 to the late Chalmers T. Williams and Sally Payne Williams. He attended the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County schools and graduated from Paisley Senior High School, class of 1963. Mr. Williams served honorably in the US Army during the Vietnam War.

Following his service to his country, he furthered his education at Talladega College in Alabama, graduating in 1975. An outstanding basketball player in college, he was the MVP leading scorer, captain of the team in 1974 and named "Small College All-American."

He continued his service to his country as a civilian employee of the US Postal Service. There he worked proudly for 23 years. An avid gardener, family and friends benefitted from his love of planting, harvesting and sharing the fruits of his labor.

Well-known at Mt. Carmel Baptist Church, he served faithfully as a Deacon and in many other capacities. On Wednesday, November 6, 2019, because he believed, God called him from earth to his heavenly reward.

Chalmers leaves not to mourn but to cherish their memories: his loving and devoted wife of 30 years, Gwendolyn J. Williams, of the home; two daughters: Angela McDougal of Greensboro, NC and Shelly McDougal of the city; two granddaughters: Elisa McDougal of Greensboro, NC and Alexi Cullins, of the home; six grandsons: Nicholas (Jessica) McDougal, Jameson (Quandara) McDougal, Korree McDougal, and Richard Smith, all of Greensboro, NC, Corey McDougal of the city and Aaron Cullins of Chapel Hill, NC; nine great grandsons; four great granddaughters; one brother, Melvin Witherspoon of Waxhaw, NC; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and his beloved Mount Carmel Baptist Church family.
