Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road,
and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low,
remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take,
and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
go to the friends we know.
Bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me but let me go.

Obituary

Joel David Goodson was born on September 14, 1970 in Greensboro, NC to the late Stacy Willie Walter Goodson and Mary Morrison Goodson. He attended the Guilford County schools and graduated from James B. Dudley High School. His quest for furthering his education continued at North Carolina State University where he received a BS degree. There was no doubt that Joel was a proud member of the “Wolfpack”.

Professionally Joel worked for several insurance agencies. He was employed as a Records Specialist with the City of Winston-Salem in Planning and Development Services.

A member of Love and Faith Ministries, he served in the Ministry of Encouragement, the Unmarried Ministry, the Praise and Worship Team and the Community Information Link.

Joel enjoyed outings with his sister, traveling, going to the movies, dining at various restaurants, watching sports, playing golf and volunteering for the National Black Theatre Festival.

Unexpectedly on Thursday, December 12, 2019, Joel passed away. In addition to his parents, Stacy Walter Goodson and Mary Ann Morrison Goodson, he was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Dave V. Goodson and Almeter Goodson; maternal grandparents, Wade Morrison, Sr. and Viola McAuley Morrison.

Joel leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted sister, Carmella Ann (Brian) Jefferies; brother, Stacy Clifford (Shirley) Goodson, both of Winston-Salem; a loving aunt, Dinnah Morrison Gilmer of Greensboro; an uncle, Herbert Goodson, also of Greensboro; a devoted cousin, Tara (Charles) Smith of Greensboro; a host of other cousins and God-children.
