

When Day Is Done

I want to know, when day is done,
That life has been worth living...
That I have brought somebody joy,
Through kind, unselfish giving.

I want to feel, when evening falls,
And shadows quickly lengthen,
That I have made somebody glad,
Some weakness I have strengthened.

I want to know, that come what may,
I've left some cheer and gladness.
I want to know, that on my way,
I've banished someone's sadness.

I want to feel, at close of day,
That someone's cares were lighter,
Because of kindness I have done,
May someone's life be brighter.

Acknowledgement

Our family would like to thank everyone for the many acts of kindness shown to us during Jerry' illness and since his passing.

Obituary

If I can help somebody, as I pass along. If I can cheer somebody, with a word or song. If I can show somebody, that he's travelling wrong. Then my living shall not be in vain. Alma Androzso

Mr. Jerry Lee Gordon was born on April 24, 1955 in Winston-Salem, NC to the late James Odell Gordon and Dorothy Lucille Gordon. He attended the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools and was a 1973 graduate of East Forsyth High School.

Following high school, Jerry served in the United States Army as a Medic from 1975 to 1978. He was a person who always enjoyed helping others. Being a handyman was another way he discovered he could provide a service to someone in need. Additionally, he was also employed by R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company and GMAC.

Jerry passed away on Wednesday, February 5, 2020 following a brief period of illness. He was preceded in death by his father; his son, Shawn Staggers; and his brother, Kenneth Gordon.

He is survived by a son: Andrew (Sasha) Greer of Columbia, SC; five grandchildren; five sisters, Beverly Reed, Janet Driskell, Angela Gordon, Lillian Gilmore and Mary Frances Hayes; two brothers; Edward Gordon and Palmer (Betty) Gilmore; a host of nieces and nephews; devoted friends, Tyrone Holman and Adrian (Melinda) Mack; other relatives and friends.
