After Glow

By Helen Lowrie Marshall

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an after glow
of smiles when life is done, I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and summer days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun,
Of happy memories that I leave
When life is done.*

Acknowledgement

*Thank you to everyone for your thoughtfulness during this time.
Special thanks to Willette Poole for her many acts of love, support and care given to our dear mother during her transition.*

Obituary

Mrs. Mary M. Kyles was born on September 19, 1928 to the late Clifton and Pearlie Abbott Mitchell in Walkertown, NC. She passed away on Tuesday, August 27, 2019.

Educated in the local public schools, she continued her training and graduated from Winston-Salem Barber School. She excelled at her craft and later became an instructor for Pyramid Barber School. Truly a minority female entrepreneur in the city, Mrs. Kyles was owner and operator of Triad Barber School where she trained many aspiring barbers and entrepreneurs.

As a member of Faith of God Ministries and in the community, she encouraged many and identified resources to help others.

She was preceded in death by: her parents, husband, Frank Kyles; sisters, Frances, Clara, Annetta and Floretta; brothers, Albert, Fred and Norman.

Mrs. Kyles is survived by her four sons: Paul Gambill, Jr., Richard (Glenda) Gambill, Ron Gambill and Thomas Gambill; seven grandchildren; two siblings, a sister, Inez Price and a brother, Hubert (Rosetta) Mitchell; a host of nieces and nephews, other relatives, former students and friends.

If I Can Help Somebody

If I can help somebody, as I pass along,
If I can cheer somebody, with a word or song,
If I can show somebody, that he's travelling wrong,
Then my living shall not be in vain.

If I can do my duty, as a good man ought,
If I can bring back beauty, to a world up wrought,
If I can spread love's message, as the Master taught,
Then my living shall not be in vain.
