

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

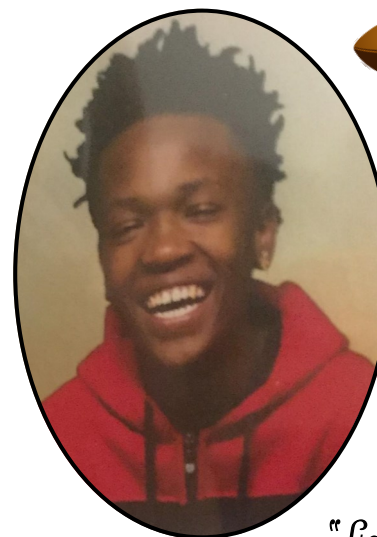

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary

Mr. Jayden Maurice Jamison was born in Columbus, Georgia on February 19, 2003 to Karya Jamison and Frankie Williams. After residing the first eleven years of his life in Georgia, he moved to Winston-Salem with his mother and sisters. A student in the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County school system, Jayden was an aspiring athlete. He was a member of the football, basketball and soccer and track teams at Winston-Salem Preparatory Academy. Additionally, he showcased his musical talents and played saxophone in the band. He loved spending time with his friends who he lovingly called "Cuddie."

Jayden left us far too soon on Tuesday, October 29, 2019. He was preceded in death by his grandparents: Alverta Jamison, Sims Jamison and Frankie Williams, Sr.; aunt, Gloria Jamison and uncle, Samuel Jamison.
