

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you;
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see the Master called me
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.

Acknowledgement

Thank you for the love and thoughtfulness shown to our family since the homegoing of our beloved "June". Above all we thank you for your prayers, today and in the days to come.

Obituary

For his anger lasts only a moment, but his favor lasts a lifetime; weeping may stay for the night, but rejoicing comes in the morning.

Psalms 30:5

Mr. Algefields Cain, Jr. was born to Thelma Leggett Thompson and Algefields Cain, Sr. on February 11, 1965 in Winston-Salem, NC. Algefields, affectionately known as "June", attended the Winston-Salem/Forsyth County Schools. He was a 1983 graduate of East Forsyth High School. While at East Forsyth he played varsity football in the position of fullback. He furthered his education at North Carolina Central University where he also played football. Algefields joined Mount Carmel Baptist Church at a young age. He maintained his membership until 1998, when he moved to Detroit, MI. While in Detroit, he was employed at Motor City Casino Restaurant as a chef before relocating to New Orleans where he was a chef at the Superdome.

Algefields passed away unexpectedly on Tuesday, October 29, 2019 in New Orleans, LA.

He leaves not to mourn but to cherish their memories: his wife, Mrs. Shi Jackson Cain of New Orleans; his mother, Thelma Thompson; his father, Algefields (Barbara) Cain, Sr.; two daughters, Almetris Rose and Temple Cain of Detroit, MI; three sons: Algefields Cain, III of Charlotte, NC, Thornton Cain and Trenton Nash of Detroit, MI; four sisters: Minister Tonia Cain of Durham, NC, Angela Teague and Crystal Thompson of the city and Angel Cain (Michael) Williams of MD; five brothers: William A McLeod (Fonda) of Charlotte, NC, Anthony (Ericka) Covington of Baltimore, MD, William Thompson of Raleigh, NC, Algie (Terri) Cain of Youngsville, NC and Willie O. Jones of the city; four uncles, six aunts, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends; a very devoted and motherly friend, Mrs. Gracie Thomas of Detroit, MI; and a very special cousin, Ruben Blair of Florida.
