

Customized Training

A business service designed to meet the special requirements of an employer

Passaic County
One-Stop Center
Linking Business & People

HOW DOES IT WORK?

The training is conducted with a commitment by the employer to employ, or in the case of incumbent workers, continue to employ, an individual upon the successful completion of training for which the employer pays for no less than 50% of cost of the training.

WHO CAN I TRAIN?

Customized training may be provided to eligible unemployed persons and, in some cases, to eligible employed workers.

BUSINESS MAY QUALIFY IF THEY:

- Commit to hire or retain persons who successfully complete their customized training program.
- Have workers that are in need of training in the following categories to retain their position or increase their wages:
  1. The introduction by the employer of new technologies
  2. The introduction to new production or service procedures, or
  3. Upgrading to new jobs that require additional skills or workplace literacy
