

HOLISTIC MINISTRIES INC

November 2021
Newsletter

ministries.holistic@yahoo.com (786)817-4655. All Church Services are Live on ZOOM: https:// us02web.zoom.us/j/7866741000.
Meeting ID: 786 674 1000 Sundays
9AM Sunday School and Worship
11AM; Wednesdays Bible Study and Prayer Services begin at 5PM

Words of Encouragement from Pastor C. Y.
Dozier, ThD.

Dearest Brothers and Sisters,

Jesus came to save the lost and the sinner (1Timothy 1:12-17). Paul wrote this letter to Timothy, specifically stating his own sinful background. He confessed himself as being because he raised havoc entering houses and Paul even held coats as noted Christian martyr in stoned. He consented this Christian, one of the first noted in Scripture. Then, havoc, persecution, and requested and received the synagogues (places of slaughter/murder Christians praising and worshiping God.

We have ad space for your business and the only request is a small donation of your choice! Visit our boutique at abetterchristianapparel.com. Then call us to place your order. We appreciate your patronage!

chief among sinners against the churches, hazing men and women. Deacon Stephen, the first the New Testament was persecution of a devout seven ordained deacons crowning his devastation, terror to the church, Paul official permission to enter worship) to arrest, while they were in the act of

We are all sinners. (1John 1:8). The Apostles, prophets, and other holy men and women of Scripture were also sinners. Paul was no different and neither are you and I. Yet, when God met these people in their situations, they repented, confessed, and followed God, preaching, praying, teaching, and ministering in their various and individual capacities and divine calls.

Paul followed their examples. When Paul was on his way via the road to Damascus, to put his terroristic plan into action, Jesus met him. Paul humbled himself to Christ and asked Him, what would he have him do. Paul admitted in his letter to Timothy that he terrorized the church due to his ignorance. Paul further stated in this letter that Jesus came to save the lost and the sinner. Paul speaks of his conversion and change in terms of now being a minister (servant or ambassador) for Christ. In this capacity and call, Paul views himself to be a pattern or example to others, so that they may receive eternal life.

We can follow the example of Paul. First, make surety of your call. Ask God what must you do to minister to others, in a way that pleases Him, especially during this season. Jesus gave us basic instructions when He said that we should let our light shine, by doing good works, so that others may see them, and glorify God (Mathew 5:17). Our lights shine when the world sees love, kindness, patience, peace, faith, self control, and humbleness. Even when you do not have material to give, you can reflect the fruit of the Spirit. Treat others as you want to be treated. Pray for others as you pray for yourself and your loved ones.

As we approach Thanksgiving, let us rejoice in the fact that God gave us His Son, Jesus Christ to save us from hell: eternal death and damnation. Then let the world see Jesus in you as a pattern and example, of joy, peace and love, because of eternal life through faith in Jesus Christ!

From the Editor:

As the leaves change colors and the birds migrate to warmer temperatures, I hope you are enjoying the changes as much as I am. I have opened the windows to let the cooler air come in. I started moving things around in the house, shifting clothes between trunks and closets. I even started a new walking routine. Lately, I have been walking through the neighborhood, chatting with the neighbors. I have also been shooting hoops at the park, instead of walking on the treadmill. I am so glad to be out again, mostly because of the weather, but also because it seems the pandemic is more controlled. I still keep my distance and wear a mask when I think I should, but I am no longer confined to working from home! It is good to be out and about again. I hope you all be safe and well, and enjoy the changing season and your loved ones and acquaintances. (Disclaimer: Editor's opinion does not necessarily reflect those of Holistic Ministries. Inc.)