President's Message

Mats A. Persson

Summer is rapidly approaching

Kids coming back from colleges and K-12's having a few weeks left. This is also my last newsletter for this term year.

I have thoroughly enjoyed being an active part of ASMC Washington Chapter and daily FM professionalism to ensure our national security mission. The dedicated folks who volunteer on our chapter board are truly exceptional and worthy of special call out!

Facing unexpected board vacancies early in the term, we were most fortunate to have long time USCG Assistant Secretary Stacy Spadafora agree to add on responsibilities as Executive Secretary throughout the year. She runs our monthly meetings, produces the agendas, writes and publishes the notes and ensures all actions are followed upon. Stacy is always on top of her game and I have no idea what this year would have been without her. She will be retiring from civil service as well as leaving the board on June 30.

In the same group of rock stars is Steve Birk. He has taken over the critical two year commitment as Chapter Treasurer and has put us and the Finances in a completely different state. I had a sense when my year started that we did not have full knowledge about the budget and the spend plan or all we do. Through Steve's continued digging, we now have implemented internal controls and visibility into our expenses, very detailed understanding of costs, training classes, scholarships, lunches, and golf tournaments. Based on his work, we can now fully support regular audit committee oversight, as well as very accurate budget and measure actuals against it throughout the year. Steve is staying in his role for another year and it is terrific that we will be able to keep him in that role. Exceptional work ethic and always prepared.

Finally I would like to recognize Deb Delmar. I am sure you all know her. She is not only behind everything we do, she is also doing more behind the scenes than everyone I have met. Agree, she has been ASMC Leadership for a while. But that is just the beginning. The effort she puts in on a daily basis is nothing short of amazing. To be candid about our local chapter, we are incredibly dependent on her and there would not be a PDI at the Reagan Building without her. But, that is not all. There may not be a Holiday Party, or a luncheon speaker, or a corporate sponsor or..... without Deb. It has been a true honor to work side by side with you! I don't know how you do it so well.

Lastly, I want to thank Krystyna Kolesar. She will become the new President on July 1, 2017. She has followed me and our work throughout the year and she is stepping into the President's role with full knowledge of all work and all the players on the board. I could not be more comfortable in the handoff.

We as a professional community have had a tremendous year coming up to move to audit, receive new leadership and "keep the trains running!." I know each of you are personally committed and up to the tasks at hand. Together we will ensure fiscal readiness for the Department. Thank you for allowing me to be your chapter President this year! - Mats

April Monthly Meeting Recap

20 April 2017 Luncheon Synopsis – Mrs. Bonnie Hammersley

Everyone knows what a stressful world we are currently living in and Mrs. Hammersley gave an invigorating speech on Stress Management. She started off by providing a list of the 10 most stressful jobs of 2017 and then compared a Fire Fighter (2nd most stressful) to the DoD FM community. There were a number of similarities and at the top of the list was the need for success: firefighter must extinguish fires and DoD must win the war. The symptoms of stress can be physical (elevated blood pressure & breathing rate), emotional, and behavioral.

Why should you reduce your stress one might question, well that is easy... You Only Live Once (YOLO). Mrs. Hammersley gave us three tools to add to our toolkit; 1. Belly Breathing (breathing in a manner which raises your diaphragm), 2. Laugh, and 3. Imagine going to your happy place. The easiest of these three new tools is to laugh, she prescribed laughing every day and at the very least if you cannot work up to a full laugh then smile as you think of the place that makes you feel happy.

Mrs. Hammersley is the Deputy Chief Information Officer for Resources & Analysis within the office of the DoD Chief Information Officer (DoD CIO). Key responsibilities include serving as the DoD CIO focal point for the Planning, Programming, Budgeting and Execution process, Congressional issues, Information Management issues and for CIO Administration & Management. This position was formerly the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Resources within the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Networks & Information Integration)/DoD Chief Information Officer).

May Meeting Guest Speaker

David Fisher has been successfully leading business transformation programs in both the public and private sectors for nearly 20 years. Currently he is leading the Public Sector Risk Consulting Practice for PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC), with a particular focus on assisting Federal agencies to design, implement, and fully operationalize Enterprise Risk Management (ERM) programs. As a former Chief Risk Officer at the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) who stood up the organization's first ERM program, Mr. Fisher recognizes that ERM solutions require cultural adaptation around the mindsets and behaviors that are essential to enabling enterprise-wide risk transparency, along with the mechanisms that must be established to enable efficient and effective identification and management of the organization's highest priority portfolio of risks.

At the IRS, Mr. Fisher's office established ERM governance and operating models that provided the means for senior leaders to engage with ongoing top-down guidance, prioritization, and critical decision-making, while also fostering a bottom-up set of capabilities to capture, socialize, and analyze risks as they were being identified throughout the organization. He led the Agency through its first enterprise risk assessment, including actions items directed by the Executive Risk Committee for which he served as the Chair.

Mr. Fisher spent nearly ten years as a senior executive in the Federal government, leading transformation efforts across at the Department of Defense (DoD), the Government Accountability Office (GAO), and the IRS. At DoD, he served as the first permanent Director of the newly established Business Transformation Agency (BTA). In this capacity, Mr. Fisher served as a direct report to DoD's Deputy Chief Management Officer, with an agency budget of ~$350 million, and oversight responsibility for more than $2 billion in DoD's annual IT modernization spending. He served as the chief executive for the agency which included directorates focused on DoD-wide process and functional business requirements, data standards, IT investment management, enterprise integration, unique warfighter business requirements for contingency operations, and a business systems acquisition portfolio that consisted of more than 20 DoD-wide IT programs. In recognition of his service and accomplishments, Mr. Fisher was awarded the Secretary of Defense Medal for Exceptional Civilian Service.

Mr. Fisher's government service followed to the Legislative Branch where he served as the Chief Administrative Officer / Chief Financial Officer at GAO. Working directly for the Comptroller General and as a member of the Agency's four-person Executive Committee, his management responsibilities encompassed all internal operations, including budget (~$500 million), financial management and audit, internal controls, human resources, IT, business process reengineering (BPR), procurement, publishing, facilities, security, and field operations. As the agency's Co-Performance Improvement Officer, he led an end-to-end BPR initiative that identified 31 recommendations to improve mission efficiency without compromising quality, and led the implementation of many of those recommendations. Mr. Fisher was a recipient of the Comptroller General Award (the Agency's highest honor) in only his second year at GAO.

In addition to his duties at each of these agencies, Mr. Fisher also served on the initial Financial Systems Advisory Board, which was chartered to provide recommendations to the Office of Management & Budget on financial system modernization projects from across the entire Federal government. The Board reviewed all current or planned federal financial system modernization projects, taking a risk-based approach to yield recommendations on how best to achieve desired outcomes. These recommendations, as adopted by OMB and Federal Agencies, yielded savings of approximately $1.6 billion for the government.

Mr. Fisher is a graduate of Stanford University, and received his MBA from Santa Clara University's Leavey School of Business and Administration where he earned the Dean's Award for Scholarship. He is the author of the book, Optimize Now (or else!): How to Leverage Processes and Information to Achieve Enterprise Optimization (and Avoid Enterprise Extinction).

FAQ

The National Professional Development Institute (PDI) is the premier training event of the American Society of Military Comptrollers (ASMC), and will take place on May 31-June 2 in San Diego, California (with Pre-PDI May 29-30). Defense financial managers in the public and private sectors will converge for the three-day event to enhance their resource management knowledge and skills, as well as share best practices toward meeting the complex challenges of today's fiscal environment.

The PDI 2017 program included general and Service Day sessions, mini-courses, and workshops focused on defense financial management competency areas. Speakers discussed current issues in DoD and US Coast Guard financial management operations. Most importantly, the Mini-courses provided participants the opportunity to obtain direct credit toward meeting certain DoD FM Certification requirements at Levels 2 and 3 of the program.

Beyond the 21 CPE credits available to attendees, the PDI provided a valuable forum for participants from Service HQs, major commands, and installation levels to collaborate with leadership, peers, vendors, and clients. This event also showcased individuals and teams who have been recognized by ASMC for their excellent contributions to the field of defense financial management.

Are you ready to catch the wave? Be audit ready and join us in San Diego!

While most candidates in the CDFM program are civilian or military/reserve members of the Department of Defense, U.S. Coast Guard, U.S. Army, U.S. Air Force, U.S. Navy, U.S. Marine Corps or employees of defense contractors or suppliers, the CDFM program is open to all candidates who have a high school diploma (or equivalent) and meet the following work experience qualifications:

Have the required number of years of defense-related financial management experience outlined below:

- Two (2) years if you hold an Associate's degree or higher; or
- Three (3) years if you do not have a degree.

OR

Do not have defense-related financial management experience, but can meet the following criteria outlined below:

- Four (4) years of Federal government-related financial management experience; and
- An Associate's degree or higher.

There are three steps involved with earning your CDFM:

1. Enroll in the CDFM Program. Your enrollment is valid for two (2) years, during which time you must take, and successfully pass, the three CDFM module examinations.

2. Submit Your Verification of Financial Management Experience Form. This form, which must be signed by a supervisor who can verify your work experience, must be returned to ASMC after enrolling in the CDFM program. You do not have to submit this form prior to taking a CDFM examination, but it is required prior to the awarding of the CDFM designation.

3. Purchase and Schedule the CDFM Examinations. Be sure to carefully – and completely – read the criteria associated with each testing option for the CDFM examinations. Failure to do so can result in the purchase of the wrong CDFM examination and/or the inability to test at your preferred location
