THANK YOU ALL FOR BEING SO PATIENT during this time of construction of our new roofs. It is coming along great but as you know we have a few ranch buildings and then last but not least the Garden Building. So, we will be in an active construction area for a few more weeks. Please try to be patient and leave the crew to their jobs so as not to delay them or get in their way. If you notice something that doesn't seem right or have any issues at all in regards to this big project please call the office.

Todd will notify you before construction starts on a building that directly impacts you so please sit tight. You will be notified. If you are leaving on an extended trip please also let the office know in case we need to get into the unit (for skylights etc.) while you are expected to be gone.

It will sure look nice around here when they are all done, and just in time for winter!! Thanks again for your understanding and patience!!

This will be a fun new way to watch an old time favorite!

Told that he will inherit $7 million by 7 p.m. if he can get married in time, lovelorn lawyer Jimmie Shannon sets off on a wild bride-chase. The hilariously inventive comedy culminates with one of Buster Keaton's most renowned set pieces. (Comedy silent film)
