We have money to lend. Check with the loan officer for the current rates.

You can transact business with your Credit Union through mail. You don't have to come to the Credit Union to deposit or withdraw funds. You can also request loan forms and submit them through the mail.

If you have not made a transaction with your Credit Union (share deposit, withdrawal, or written/email correspondence) in the last three years, your account may have to be turned over to the District of Columbia as unclaimed property. It only takes a single transaction every other year to prevent this from occurring. You can also send us a letter or email stating that you want to keep the account active and be sure to include your address and account number.
