

Edward N. Collier, MS, PT
Lieutenant Colonel (Retired), United States Army

Edward Collier is a licensed physical therapist and owner/practice administrator of Progressive Step Rehabilitation of Orange Park. He has 40 years of experience as a clinician with substantial expertise in adult and child neurologic rehabilitation, sports medicine, orthopedic rehabilitation, general musculoskeletal care, sports medicine, and wound and burn care. He served for 22 years as an officer physical therapist in the United States Army with multiple assignments in the United States and Europe. He has successfully owned and operated a private therapy practice for the past 15 years. His interests include fitness, traveling, reading, and history.

MS – Health Care Administration, Texas State University, San Marcos, TX

BS – Physical Therapy, University of Florida, Gainesville, FL

Member – American Physical Therapy Association and Retired Officers Association

Military – Lieutenant Colonel (Retired), United States Army

Continuing Education – Adult and child neurologic rehabilitation, sports medicine, orthopedic rehabilitation, and injury prevention

Licensure – Florida