New cartoon show ‘Hazbin Hotel’ praises Lucifer, demonizes ‘Heaven’

Amazon Video released an animated adult show on Friday called Hazbin Hotel, which praises “Lucifer” and perversely demonizes “Heaven” and “angels” without mentioning God. The series has been widely praised by critics and viewers alike, signaling today’s rampant moral and spiritual confusion.

What is the prophetic significance of this cartoon demonizing Heaven?

This is a manifestation of the Spirit of Antichrist...

Revelation 13:6 – Then he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme His name, His tabernacle, and those who dwell in heaven.

Why will the Antichrist advance a false narrative about God and those in heaven?

There will have to be some explanation for the rapture of the church; in the context of the rapture...

2 Thessalonians 2:11 – God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie

Based on the set-up with UAP (UFO) phenomena today, the lie will be that the rapture was not a supernatural act of God, it was simply an application of advanced, extraterrestrial technology.

How will the Antichrist blaspheme God?

Certainly, misrepresent Him denying the revelation in Scripture. We can only speculate...

- Evolution is true
- Advanced aliens “seeded” humans on earth
- God is the leader of a group of aliens seeking to invade earth

How will the Antichrist blaspheme God’s name?

The Antichrist’s doctrine of Jesus will be pretty distorted: he was just a prophet, not the Son of God.

How will the Antichrist blaspheme God’s tabernacle?

- He will deny the Holy Spirit living in believers.
- He will deny Jesus coming back to rule on earth.

Who will be dwelling in heaven that the Antichrist will speak falsely about?

- Angels – the holy angels will be represented as bad aliens while the demons will be represented as benevolent aliens here to help mankind.
- Saints – those people taken in the rapture were taken away because they were holding society back

How will the good alien – bad alien narrative be used to gather the world to Armageddon to fight God?

God has to be misrepresented. The narrative will be that mankind has to work together with the benevolent aliens if they are to have any hope to repel the coming alien invasion...

Revelation 16:13-14 – I saw three unclean spirits like frogs coming out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For they are spirits of demons, performing signs, which go out to the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

Why are these unclean spirits described as looking like frogs?

How are aliens depicted today? Smooth features, green skin, no nose and with big eyes... like frogs.

How is our culture calling evil “good” today?

The celebration of homosexuality and the defense of abortion on demand are usually accompanied by a mockery of those who value life and promote traditional marriage. Evil is being called “good,” and good is slandered as “evil.”

What does it tell us that there is so much calling good evil and evil good today?

Such reversal of values is rampant in our culture today. This reveals that we have to be close to the Judgment of God... the Tribulation.

What does it mean to call evil good and good evil?

Isaiah 5:20 – Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

In Isaiah 5:8–30, the prophet pronounces “woes” or judgments on Judah for their wicked behavior. Judah had produced the “bad fruit” of unrighteousness, as illustrated in the song of the vineyard (verses 4–7).

- Their wickedness even led them to proclaim sinful things as good.
- Light and darkness are opposites, which adds to the gravity of the men of Judah calling evil “good.”

A major problem in Judah during Isaiah’s time was widespread drunkenness. People would wake up early in the morning to drink alcohol and continue long into the night (Isaiah 5:11).

- Instead of respecting “the deeds of the Lord,” they reveled in their sin and drunkenness (verses 11–12). They did not see their sin as wickedness; rather, they called their evil “good.”

Why would people call good evil and evil good?

A world in rebellion against God will have a skewed perspective and embrace a topsy-turvy morality.

Romans 1:28 – And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a debased mind, to do those things which are not fitting

Apart from God, our value system will always become jumbled. We will begin to confuse sweetness and bitterness, light and darkness, and good and evil.

- We will label biblical morality as “intolerant” and “oppressive.”
- We will take offense at the truth that Jesus is the only way to salvation (John 14:6). “Light has come into the world, but people loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil” (John 3:20).

How is calling good “evil” and evil “good” a sure sign of spiritual wickedness at work?

2 Corinthians 4:4 – The god of this age has blinded the minds of unbelievers, so that they cannot see the light of the gospel that displays the glory of Christ, who is the image of God

People without God in their lives are blind to the ultimate reality. As we get closer to God pouring out His wrath, such blindness will only increase...

2 Timothy 3:1–5 – There will be terrible times in the last days. People will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, proud, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, without love, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not lovers of the good, treacherous, rash, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God—having a form of godliness but denying its power. Have nothing to do with such people.

How can we navigate through today’s cultural confusion over right and wrong?

The resource God has given us to enlighten darkened minds is the Bible...

Psalm 119:104–105 – Through Your precepts I get understanding... Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.

In their fallen condition, humans cannot accurately determine what is right and wrong. Only God can give definitive answers on good and evil.

- The Bible is “God-breathed,” the only certain source in providing guidance to mankind (2 Timothy 3:16).

What applications do we see from this discussion?

- The strong delusion is being set up today.
- The spirit of Antichrist calls good evil and evil good.
- The spirit of Antichrist is strong and growing in the world today; we have to be close to the end!
