

Flower Attendants
Family and Friends

Pall Bearers
Family and Friends

With Our Love

*Our beloved mother, sister, and grandmother
will be sorely missed.
If she never sings another song here on Earth, we know
she's singing with the angels and reunited in her new home with those who passed on before her.*

Rest In Peace

Acknowledgements

For every card, for all the care, for simply thinking of us, and especially for being there, we thank you.

The Family

Clark S. Brown
& Sons Since 1928
FUNERAL HOME

727 North Patterson Avenue
Winston-Salem, North Carolina 27101
336.722.8117
www.clarksbrownandsons.com

Honoring her Spirit

Mrs. Nancy Q. Riggins

May 22, 1941 ~ March 21, 2022

Saturday, April 2, 2022
11:00 AM

Clark S. Brown & Sons Funeral Home
727 North Patterson Avenue
Winston-Salem, North Carolina
Pastor Joleatha Dockery, Officiating

Obituary

Nancy Quick Riggins (80) departed this earthly life on March 21, 2022. She was born May 24, 1941 in Hamlet, NC to Ernest Quick and Leatha Adams Quick Covington.

She is preceded in death by her parents; husband Charles Riggins; her daughter, Dorothy Brown Wilson; sons, Rexford Lee Brown Jr. and Barry Curtis Brown; her brothers, John and Alexander Quick, Hassie Covington; and a sister, Beatrice Hicks, all of Brooklyn, NY; also a brother, Laverne Quick of Winston-Salem, NC.; grandsons, Isaac Jermaine Brown (infant) and Yashine Brown, all born to Dorothy Brown; and two infant great grandchildren, born to Shalanta Wilson.

In the late 1950's Mrs. Riggins moved from Hamlet, NC to Raleigh, NC, where she met and married Rexford Lee Brown, Sr. They moved to Brooklyn, NY to raise four children. She began working at Kings County Hospital and cared for patients there for over fifteen years. She was very passionate in her CNA position.

Moving back to NC in the late 1970's, she continued in the nursing field. She met and married Charles Riggins. Mrs. Riggins also shared her love of singing. She had a voice that would move and make you feel her passion. She loved the church and often ministered to others.

She was ordained an Elder, graduated from Vintage Bible College in 2011 and pursued her calling to evangelism and Christian Outreach. She attended many programs and traveled often with her friend, Joleatha Dockery "Little Pastor". She moved to Winston-Salem, NC, continued her nursing career and also raised five of her grandchildren. In her lifetime, she touched and made a difference in many lives.

Those who remain to cherish her memory and honor her legacy are: her son, Anthony B. (Nancy) Brown; a brother, Bishop Ernest Quick, Jr. of Washington, DC; sisters, Nellie Hargrove of Brooklyn, NY, Doris (Richard) Miller of Kernersville, NC, and Deborah Martin of Hamlet, NC. She also leaves sixteen grandchildren; twenty-seven great grandchildren; four great-great grandchildren; another one, dear to her heart, her great-great grandbaby, Lyberti who called her "NaeNae"; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Order of Service

Processional

Opening

Bishop Ernest Quick, Jr.

Scripture Readings

Old Testament Michael Ratliff

New Testament Richard Miller

Prayer of Comfort

Bishop Sam Davis

Acknowledgements

Solo

Catrice Wright

Eulogy

Pastor Joleatha Dockery

Recessional

Interment

Piedmont Memorial Gardens
3663 Memorial Park Drive
Winston-Salem, NC

If Roses Grow in Heaven

If roses grow in heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch for us,
Place them in our Mother's arms
and tell her they're from us.

Tell her we love her and miss her,
and when she turns to smile,
place a kiss upon her cheek
and hold her for awhile.

Because remembering her is easy,
We do it every day,
but there's an ache within our hearts
that will never go away.

~ Dolores M. Garcia (Adapted)

Our Tribute

She Shall be Praised

Proverbs 31:10 and 25-31

*A wife of noble character who can find?
She is worth far more than rubies.
She is clothed with strength and dignity;
she can laugh at the days to come.
She speaks with wisdom, and faithful instruction
is on her tongue.
She watches over the affairs of her household
and does not eat the bread of idleness.
Her children arise and call her blessed;
her husband also, and he praises her:
“Many women do noble things,
but you surpass them all.”
Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting;
but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.
Honour her for all that her hands have done,
and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.*

