PEACE

God looked around his garden and found an empty place.
Then he looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful. He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering; He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough; the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyes and whispered "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you, the day God called you home.

Lovingly submitted,

The Family

Acknowledgements

Obituary

And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fish-ers. And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. And they straightway left their nets, and followed him. Matthew 4: 18-20 KJV

On Saturday, March 2, 2024, God sent HIS Angel to take HIS Child and our loved one to Heaven.

Joseph Caldwell, Sr. was born on March 17, 1936, in Sumter, SC to Abraham and Virginia Caldwell. He was educated in the Sumter County School System in Sumter, SC. He later moved to Winston-Salem, NC, where he met Polly Lorraine Hairston. They married in 1955 and later moved to New York. To this union, six children were born.

He was an employee of RJ Reynolds Tobacco Company and retired after 30 years of dedicated service. He was a faithful and active member of Oak Grove Missionary Baptist Church in Walkertown, NC. There he served as a Sunday School Superintendent and Deacon. He faithfully attended services and with family, participated in many church activities and ministries.

In his pastime, he enjoyed fishing, cooking, hunting, and playing the guitar. But most of all, he enjoyed spending time with his family.

In addition to his parents, three brothers: John, Simon, and Robert; and his son, Gary Jerome Caldwell preceded him in death.

Those who cherish his memory are his loving wife of 69 years, Polly Lorraine Hairston Caldwell, of the home; two daughters, Karen (Thomas) Brantley of Atlanta, GA and Shelia (Charles) Parker of Kern-ersville, NC; three sons, Joseph (Laura) Caldwell, Jr., Bruce (Carolyn) Caldwell and Heath (Tina) Caldwell, all of Kernersville, NC; eleven grandchildren; thirteen great grandchildren; two sisters, Sarah Caldwell Harrison of Philadelphia, PA and Beatrice McKnight of Columbia, SC; one brother, Malachi Caldwell of Columbia, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Our Tribute

The Man is a Success

The man is a success
who has lived well, laughed often and loved much;
who has gained the respect of intelligent men and women and the love of children; who has filled his niche and accomplished his task;
who leaves the world better than he found it,
who has never lacked appreciation of Earth’s beauty or failed to express it;
who looked for the best in others,
and gave the best he had.

~ Robert Louis Stevenson
