Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

The Obituary

Psalm 71: 1,2,3,22 KJV

1 In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust: let me never be put to confusion. 2 Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to escape: incline thine ear unto me, and save me. 3 Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: thou hast given commandment to save me; for thou art my rock and my fortress. 22 I will also praise thee with the psaltery, even thy truth, O my God: unto thee will I sing with the harp, O thou Holy One of Israel.

Mr. Samuel Lee Young, Sr. of Winston-Salem, North Carolina was born to the late Lillie Mae Young and Kit Guest. He transitioned to his heavenly home on March 12, 2021. His devotion to his family and his firm belief in God supported him in his life's journey.

He served the city of Winston-Salem for 28 years and retired as a Senior Crew Chief. For over 50 years he provided service to many families and businesses through S.L. Young & Sons. "Sam" contributed to many church events and other organizations using his corporate slogan "Samuel L. Young, Sr. Brick, Rock, & Block."

A faithful member of Goler Metropolitan AME Church, he was a member of the Trustee Board, Board of Finance, Usher Board, Men's Booster Ministry for Goler Metropolitan, and The Winston-Salem District, The Culinary Ministry, and Chairman of the church Bus Ministry, which he co-founded with Al White.

He enjoyed working, being in church, spending time with his family, fishing, and was in a competitive bowling league for many years. Understanding the power of prayer, he was also a member of a prayer group.

"Sam" is survived by his wife Janice; three children, Sandra, Samuel Jr., and Jaynard (Bria); 7 grandchildren; 10 great grandchildren; and a devoted first cousin, John Albert (Loddie Bell) Fuller of Ware Shouls, South Carolina.

Samuel Young will truly be missed.
