Words of Encouragement from Dr.
Dearest Beloved in Christ Jesus

Jesus said, "You will know them Faith is a fruit of the Spirit faithful: He went to the cross for eternal damnation. Faith is a believers. As we enter 2022, I faith. The Christian walk is one of to please God. Although at times, everywhere and on every side, the government upon His shoulder things look dismal and everything out for the good of us encourage you to stand fast in the faith. Without faith it is impossible it may seem that there is trouble hold on to your faith! God carries and the world in His hand. While overwhelming, God is working who love Him and are called to His will not let you down. Lean on Him.

Remember Joseph and his enslavement in Egypt. He summarized the situation, stating that although evil was intended, God's plan was for good-He sent Joseph to prepare for the famine. Joseph walked in integrity, found favor among kings, forgave his brothers for selling him into slavery, secured his father and his brothers so that they had jobs, food, shelter, and received high esteem from the Egyptians. Joseph realized his labor in the Lord was not in vain. He realized that God had a plan for him, for good and not for evil. This is an example of faith we can follow in today's world condition. Jesus remained faithful even to the death of the cross. Abraham's faith and obedience counted as righteousness. In these trying times, pray without ceasing, take the high road: yield to a raging driver, pray for those who spite you. Forgive those who transgress against you. Acknowledge God in your suffering. Read the comforting words of Scripture. Your situation may seem impossible, but with God all things are possible. When you have done all you can, be still and see the salvation of the Lord! He will deliver, rescue, help and provide. Whatever you do, hold on to your faith in God. Try walking in faith, following Jesus as an example of faith, bearing your cross, in righteousness as He did. (1 John 2:6).

From the Editor:

It is hard to look forward when the issues of the past are still daunting, seeming unresolved and haunting, seemingly reeking of evil and doom. But I made up my mind to come into the New Year with a positive attitude looking to the future. Of course this is easier said than done. However, some things are water under the bridge and others are spilt milk! Why should I allow myself to start a new year dragging "shouldas," "wouldas," "couldas" into it? I believe God has something good waiting for me in 2022. I believe this not only for myself, but for you, too. I don't know why I have been thinking about Lot's wife for the past few weeks. She looked back when God told her to look forward. The Lord had destroyed everything she had, but He had kept her and her husband and single daughters alive. The married daughters burned in the fire along with their husbands. I can feel Lot's wife's pain. As a mother, she had to be devastated, hurting, and distressed beyond my imagination. After thinking about her, one thing I decided is that I am in no position to judge how people handle grief and loss. I only hope that if the Lord allows me to live to see 2022, He will give me the wherewithal to smell the flowers, enjoy the sunshine and the rain, see the beauty in others, and bask in His love, mercy, grace, and peace. I hope and pray for this for myself and for you, too. (Disclaimer: The editor's opinion may not reflect that of Holistic Ministries, Inc.)
